FEE/FINES, SILVER DOLLAR COIN IS THE ONLY DOLLAR IN LAW. BY DECLARED WITNESSED TESTIMONY BY MICHAEL WILLIS OF THE CHASE FAMILY” is declared witnessed solemn testimony of Michael Willis of the Chase Family by asseveration. Asseveration being the proof which Michael Willis of the Chase Family gives of the facts of what he says, by appealing to his conscience as a witness. It differs from an oath in this, that by the oath one appeals to Yahweh as a witness of the facts of what he says, and invokes Yahweh as the avenger of falsehood and perfidy (treachery or deceit), to punish him, by the courts, if he speak not the truth, which is a set up for perjury, because all men are liars. This is commonly known as an “oath of purgation” that was used in the Dark Ages to slaughter Pagans.

¶4. Notice Is Hereby Given that, this declared witnessed solemn testimony of Michael Willis of the Chase Family by asseveration. Know all these presents that Declarant, Michael Willis of the Chase Family does state the following: THAT
Michael Willis of the Chase Family has personal knowledge of the facts stated herein.
THAT Michael Willis of the Chase Family is competent to state to the matters set forth herein. THAT all the facts stated herein are correct and certain to the best of Michael Willis of the Chase Family knowledge, are admissible as evidence, and if called upon as a witnesses, Michael Willis of the Chase Family will testify to their veracity. THAT Michael Willis of the Chase Family states the following facts;

Romans 3:4 “May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written”

1 a Fluctuating Medium of Exchange" (1752). (See: A Caveat Against Injustice – An 2 Enquiry Into the Evil Consequences of a Fluctuating Medium of Exchange.)

3 1776 – Roger Sherman

4 ¶8. For the record, in 1766, at the age of 45, Roger Sherman was elected Judge of the 5 Superior Court in New Haven, Connecticut, serving that office with distinction until 6 1788. He was the only American to sign all four historic documents: the Continental 7 Association of 1774, the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of 8 Confederation, and "The United States Constitution." Renowned for his high 9 intelligence and unswerving honesty, Roger Sherman was described by John Adams

11 "as honest as an angel and as firm in the cause of American 12 independence as Mount Atlas."

13 ¶9. For the record, in 1791 Sherman was elected to the U.S. Senate where he served 14 until his death in 1793. This quiet, humble, awkward man who farmed, educated 15 himself, worked with his hands and his mind making shoes and poetry, making 16 astronomical and economic calculations, making law and justice, is completely unknown
17 to all but a handful of early American historians. Yet, if Judge Sherman hadn't stood up
18 that hot August afternoon in Philadelphia and uttered "Article I Section 10," America
19 would have been an endless series of banana republics, regime after regime printing 20 itself out of existence.

21 ¶10. For the record, Thomas Jefferson paid Judge Sherman the most severe and 22 valuable compliment:

23 "Roger Sherman was a man who never said a foolish thing in his 24 life."

25 "I place economy among the first and most important virtues and public 26 debt as the greatest of dangers to be feared .... We must NOT let our 27

1 rulers load us with perpetual debt. We MUST make our choice between 2 economy and liberty or profusion and servitude. ...The same prudence
3 which in private life would forbid our paying money for unexplained 4 projects, forbids it in the disposition of public money. We are 5 endeavoring to reduce the government to the practice of rigid economy
6 to avoid burdening the people ... " -Thomas Jefferson

8 August 28th, 1787 and 1792 – Lawful Money And 9 The Intent of the Framers To “Crush Paper Money”.

10 ¶11. For the record, “Lawful money” is that money described in The Coinage Act of 11 April 2, 1792, (See: Exhibit The Coinage Act of April 2, 1792), and in Article I Section
12 10 of The United States Constitution: gold and silver coined by Congress, is the only 13 “lawful money” the Supreme Law of the Land commands the states to make as legal 14 tender. Article I Section 10's most salient part is this:

15 “No state shall make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in 16 payment of debts.”

17 See: <sup>2</sup> Legal tender.

18 ¶12. Once again, the Framer who perfected the design of our country's monetary 19 system was a man who had spent most of his life struggling with - and publicly 20 condemning-a fluctuating medium-of exchange. That man was Roger Sherman

21 2 Uniform Commercial Code §3-603. Tender of Payment.

22 (a) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce
23 the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment 24 under a simple contract.

25 (b) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce
26 the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, 27 of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to 28 the obligation to which the tender relates.

(c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

1 (1721-1793), a delegate from Connecticut. It was he who, on August 28th, 1787,
2 proposed that the states sacrifice the power to participate in paper money <sup>3</sup> ponzi
3 schemes. When it was counter-proposed that the states be allowed by Congress
4 make other things than gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts, we're 5 told by James Madison that Sherman exclaimed,

7 “We are making these measures absolute. This is a favorable crisis for 8 crushing paper money. If the consent of the Legislature could authorize 9 emissions of it, the friends of paper money would make every exertion to 10 get into the Legislature in order to license it.”

11 ¶13. For the record, the voice of the legislator is a living voice, the legislator's intent 12 constitutes the law, therefore the United States monetary law MUST listen carefully to 13 Roger Sherman's voice, and be guided by the intentions it expresses. For A CAVEAT
14 AGAINST INJUSTICE, word for word, is the very soul of the supreme law governing 15 the money and the property of the people of the United States. It removes the danger
16 of judicial speculation as to the intent of the Constitution's monetary provision, 17 being the ONLY authoritative description by a Framers of the monetary system the 18 Framers wished to avoid, and why; and of the system they were advancing, and 19 why.

20 Paper Money / Fiat Money And ### 21 Mayer Amschel Rothchild, The Federal Reserve Bank and Karl Marx.

23 <sup>3</sup> A Ponzi scheme is an investment fraud that pays existing investors with funds collected from new 24 investors. Ponzi scheme organizers often promise to invest your money and generate high returns 25 with little or no risk. But in many Ponzi schemes, the fraudsters do NOT invest the money.
26 Instead, they use it to pay those who invested earlier and may keep some for themselves. With 27 little or no legitimate earnings, Ponzi schemes require a constant flow of new money to survive.
28 When it becomes hard to recruit new investors, or when large numbers of existing investors cash out, these schemes tend to collapse. Ponzi schemes are named after Charles Ponzi, who duped investors in the 1920s with a postage stamp speculation scheme.

2 ¶14. What is "fiat money" also called "paper money"? Why crush paper money?
3 Who were the friends of paper money anyway?

5 "By a continuing process of inflation, governments can confiscate,
6 secretly and unobserved, an important part of the wealth of its citizens.
7 There is NO subtler, NO surer means of overturning the existing basis 8 of society than to debauch the currency. The process engages all the 9 hidden forces of economic law on the side of destruction, and does it in 10 such a manner which NOT one man in a million is able to diagnose."

11 (See: John Maynard Keynes, "The Economic Consequences Of 12 Peace", (1920)).

13 "Give me control over a nations currency, and I care NOT who makes its 14 laws."

15 (Mayer Amschel Rothchild, 1743 – 1812).

16 Karl Marx (1818-1883), of course, was a friend of paper money. He held 17 that a central bank empowered to emit paper money and compel the 18 people to use it was essential to government's control of individual 19 property.

20 "The Federal Reserve Bank that should have been the farmer's greatest 21 protection has become his greatest foe. The deflation of the farmer was a 22 crime deliberately committed."

23 (William Jennings Bryant, U.S. Secretary of State, Hearst Magazine, 24 November, 1923).

25 House Banking and Currency Committee September 30, 1941. Patman
26 was questioning the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board Mr. Eccles.
27 Patman asked:

28 "Representative Patman: How did you get the money to buy those two billion dollars worth of government securities in 1933?"

2 Governor Eccles: We Created it.

3 Representative Patman: Out of what?

6 Representative Patman: And there is nothing behind it, is there, except 7 our government's credit.

8 Governor Eccles: That is what Our Monetary System is. If there were NO
9 DEBTS in Our Monetary System, THERE WOULD BE NO MONEY."

10 (See: House Banking And Currency Committee, Sept. 30, 1941).

11 Why "Crush Paper Money"?

12 ¶15. To absolutely prohibited paper money, crushing it forever, by locking the door in 13 paper money's face!!! The system was, and is, simply ingenious. With Article 1 14 Section 8, Congress was denied the power to print money. Article I, Section 8, Clause 15 5:

17 The Congress shall have Power...] To coin Money, regulate the Value 18 thereof, and of foreign Coin, and fix the Standard of Weights and 19 Measures;...

20 ¶16. For the record, the Federal Reserve Act of 1913 defies Article 1, Section 8, 21 Paragraph 5 of "The United States Constitution" by creating a "central bank of issue" for 22 the United States instead of Congress coining Money, regulating the Value thereof, ...
23 and fixing the Standard of Weights and Measures,...

24 The Jerry Russel Tender Story.

26 They refused payment by Jerry Russell by the Treasurer concerning a 27 tax on a trailer. Jerry had gone in and tendered silver dollars coins at the buying sight

1 rate on the day of tender with me as his witness. The Treasurer refused payment. Jerry 2 just scrapped the silver dollars coins off the counter into his hand put them back into 3 his pocket off the table and said,

4 "Your Trying to Cheat Me."

6 He turned around and walked out. A "CHEAT" is a common law crime.
7 So, now the County Clerk had committed a common law crime. Jerry had made the 8 tender she had refused. He went home back to his place wrote up a "Notice of 9 Presentment" told them when we had been there what had occurred the tender had 10 been made and in so many dollars coin at the exchange rate of such and such tender 11 had been refused payment had been made. She took it to the county attorney and the 12 county attorney told her she lost. It was paid."

14 Tender - Payment Under Objection.

15 Remember to "just pay it Under Objection.". Then the payment has to go 16 under the Treasury, otherwise it goes into their BANKING SYSTEM. Under the 17 statutes of Colorado payment of taxes or other fees, and the like, if they are NOT PAID 18 UNDER OBJECTION they go into that banking system. If you pay them UNDER 19 OBJECTION they have to go into the Treasury. Just put on it [on the tax bill for 20 example] "Paid Under Objection."

22 We Must Have a Remedy.

23 They were kind of shook about the thing, you know? But under the 24 circumstances that's the way the law is written from international agreements up all the 25 way down. UCC is that way. Title 31 – Money and Finance. USC Section 5112 is that 26 way. They are all consistent. And so, under the circumstances If Jerry did NOT have a 27 REMEDY the Court had NO CLAIM anyway. If we DON'T have a REMEDY, under 28 UCC any CONTRACTS OR OBLIGATION with the Court VOID. And if they come back and state "give it back" then you apparently have a VOID CONTRACT."

The ONLY "Dollars" Known in Law

1                   This [he holds up a silver dollar coin] is the only dollar known in law. Do
2 we see any other statute other than Title 31 – Money and Finance. USC §5112 [see 3 Exhibit title 31 – Money and Fiance. USC §5112 at the end of this section]?

5                   Was the Federal Reserve note in the statute [Title 31 – Money and 6 Finance USC §5112]? Did they say the Federal Reserve note was a dollar? NO the 7 code said A FEDERAL RESERVE NOTE was an OBLIGATION.

9                   What About 10                   Tendering a Silver Dollar Coin – To a Bank.

12                   That's a receipt I got for a silver dollar coin. I had a check from one of the 13 schools and I took the check down and I told them when I went into the bank and I 14 asked the gal at the desk in there,

16                   “I want to cash this check I'd like dollars silver coin pursuant to specific 17 performance stated on the front of this instrument I would like dollars silver 18 coin”

20                   and she said,
21

22                   “she didn't understand”.
23

24                   So, she went and got the public relations officer, who was the president's 25 kid, well he called me into his office and we went in and sat down and I asked him

27                   “I'd like to cash this check.” 28

                  And he says, “Ok.”

                  I said,

                  “I would like dollars silver coin minted by the U.S. Mint pursuant to the terms of the contract or instrument.

                  And he said,

1       "We don't have dollars silver coins."

2               I said,

3 4       "Oh." I asked him, "What do you have?"

5               And he said,

6       "We have Federal Reserve notes."

8               I said,

9       "Oh, how many of those does it take to exchange for dollars so I can go
10 purchase dollars silver coins so I can PAY my debts?"

11              And he said,

12       "I don't know."

14              And I said,

15       "I've got one right here" and I hauled one out and I said, "I paid twenty one 16 thirty in Federal Reserve notes I'd like twenty one thirty times that amount so I 17 can go buy dollars silver coin to PAY my debts."

18              And this guy just went three spaces over right then and there."

19              He got real shook, you have to watch their eyes when you do that 20 because they'll start to vibrate then you know you pushed them. He got that button
21 going and it's going haywire in there. When that eye starts going like this [twitching]
22 careful. And so anyway he says,

23       "If you have a drivers license I'll cash this for you right now."

24              And I said,

26       "I don't have a drivers license."

And I reached over and took the check out of his hand folded it up nicely and neatly and put it into my pocket and I said, "I think I'll just keep this one." Because that's a check with insufficient funds. Which is a crime in our state.

Tender

That paper that property is paid. You take a witness and a tape recorder and then go home and write them a “NOTICE OF PRESENTMENT” [see Exhibit “Presentment”]. Tender made is tender paid. That’s what they said wasn’t it? Isn’t that what they just said in Ward [Ward versus Smith, 74 U.S. (7 Wall) 207) re: Dishonored Bank Notes. It’s been that way forever.”

"Dollars in Title 31 – Money and Finance. USC §5112. There is no statute or court ruling that [a check] called that a dollars. NO one is crazy enough to call that piece of paper a dollar. (See: Exhibit - Title 31 – Money and Finance. United States Code §5112. Denominations, specification, and design of coins.)

"I just use, usually when it has to do with private parties I just take it down to the coin dealer and turn it back in and write on it, or if I take it to their bank, CASHED FOR FRN'S PARITY OF VALUE UNKNOWN. Or else I'll take it to the coin dealer and turn it back into gold or silver."

The ONLY "Dollars" Known in Law

Hypothecation – How It Works.

Definition of Hypothecation as defined by Dictionary of Banking Terms, Fitch, page 288, 1997 edition, and stated in Section 14(a) of the Federal Reserve Act of 1913.

“(1. Banking. Offer of stocks, bonds, OR OTHER ASSETS owned by a party [like the American people] other than the borrower [who is Congress – Uncle Sam] as collateral for a loan [to Congress in exchange for bonds etc.], without transferring title [of Congresses natural or human resources]. If the borrower [Congress] turns the property [Congresses natural or human resources] over to the lender [the IMF and the World Bank] who HOLDS the property, which is the right to the natural or

1 human resources] for safekeeping, the action is referred to as a PLEDGE.
2 If Congress, the borrower, retains possession, but gives the lender the right
3 to sell the property [the natural or human resources] in event of default, it
4 is a TRUE HYPOTHECATION.

5 (2. Securities. The pledging of negotiable securities [negotiable 6 instruments like chattel property titles or superior title to real property] to 7 collateralize a broker's margin loan. If the broker pledges the same 8 securities to a bank as collateral for a broker's loan, the process is referred 9 to as REHYPOTHECATION."

10 Understanding "Hypothecation"

11 Congress...

12 [Uncle Sam - Congress] loans citizens of the United States one hundred billion
13 $100,000,000,000 of Federal Reserve notes [which is NOT an obligation of Congress
14 it is the bill given to the citizens of the United States] every month. That would be fine 15 by the "IMF, under normal circumstances, but Congress dissolved the American 16 people's governmental structure years ago. So, the de facto government is insolvent.

17 International Monetary Fund (IMF) Is The Creditor...

18 So, how is Congress going to pay the IMF back?

19 Congress...

20 No worries says Congress, we'll collateralize it with ALL the nations natural and 21 human resources. Congress will start selling those natural resources to the private 22 sector and as soon as they pay us, we'll pay the IMF.

23 IMF...

24 IMF says, "But Sam you've been drinking!"

25 Congress...

26 Congress says, "We know but we promised to pay as soon as we sell those natural 27

1 resources."

2 IMF...

4 "Let the loans fly based on the collateral." So, Congress sold the post office to the 5 Rockefellers, the Coast Guard to the French OR deeded superior title to the National 6 Parks as quarterly interest due on the loans to the IMF. Congress finally has NO 7 more natural resources to pledge as collateral, now what?

8 Re-Hypothecation.
9 Congress...

10 "Hey IMF, lend [Uncle Sam - Congress] more, much more than one hundred 11 billion $100,000,000,000 of your federal reserve notes obligations every month 12 would you?"

15 "Under normal circumstances that would be fine, but you sold ALL your natural 16 resources and we still have an outstanding balance on the original hypothecation.
17 And the World Bank financed the purchases by private buyers of your former 18 natural resources. The new owners defaulted on their World Bank financing then 19 the World Bank took over ALL Congresses former natural resources at foreclosure 20 prices [at about 10 cents on the dollar]. Next, the World Bank exercised citizens of 21 the United States guarantees on the World Banks loses on our bills of credit, the 22 Federal Reserve note obligations, on our original loans with the IMF, we then sent 23 Congress the bill. As Congress remembers it's subscription agreement with the IMF
24 and the World Bank. Now, the IMF and World Bank own ALL the natural 25 resources, Congress has dissolved American's governmental structure, as a matter
26 of law, years ago and gotten deeper in debt Congress has become an incorrigible 27 drunk. And now Congress wants to re-hypothecate Congresses original debt! How

1 is Congress going to PAY the IMF and World Bank back? What PLEDGE does 2 Congress have."

3 Congress...

4 "No worries," says Congress. All citizens of the United States are our slaves 5 Congress owns their lifetime labor as a matter of law. So, we'll give the IMF and the 6 World Bank title to our chattel. Congress will lease our citizens of the United States
7 to the several states who will owe us for our slaves services. As soon as Congress
8 collects from the several states on our slaves services, we'll pay the IMF and World 9 Bank."

10 IMF...

11 The IMF, our creditors says, "But Uncle Sam you've become irresponsible an 12 incorrigible drunk!"

13 Congress...

14 Congress, the debtor says, "We know but the several states promise to pay Congress 15 as soon as they sober up. Then we'll pay the IMF and the World Bank."

16 IMF...

17 The creditor says, "Which states are in the program?"

18 Congress...

19 The debtor says, "All of them."

20 IMF...

21 The IMF and World Bank says, "Ok, well, we have pledges from all citizens of the 22 United States, let the loans fly! Only a fool would sign a contract that allows his 23 broker to re-hypothecate original collateral without a pledge! If Uncle Sam

1 [Congress] defaults we'll just keep TITLE to their slaves."

2 Law Term...Definitions

3 Federal reserve notes. Form of currency issued by Federal Reserve banks in the 4 likeness of noninterest bearing promissory note payable to bearer on demand. The 5 federal reserve note (e.g. one, five, ten, etc. dollar bill) is the most widely used paper
6 currency. Such have replaced silver and gold certificates which were backed by silver
7 and gold. Such reserve notes are direct obligations of the United States. Blacks
Law Dictionary 6th edition.

8 Money. Gold, silver, and some other less precious metals, in the progress of 9 civilization and commerce, have become the common standards of value; in order to 10 avoid the delay and inconvenience of regulating their weight and quality whenever 11 passed, the governments of the civilized world have caused them to be manufactured 12 in certain portions, and marked with a Stamp which attests their value; this is called money. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

13 Paper Money. Bills drawn by a government against its own credit, engaging to 14 pay money, but which do NOT profess to be immediately convertible into specie, 15 and which are put into compulsory circulation as a substitute for coined money. See Federal Reserve notes; Legal tender. Blacks Law Dictionary 6th edition.

16 Hypothecation, civil law. This term is used principally in the civil law; it is defined 17 to be a right which a creditor has over a thing belonging to another, and which 18 consists in the power to cause it to be sold, in order to be paid his claim out of the proceeds...Bouvier's Law Dictionary, 1856 edition.

19 Obligation of Contracts. By this expression, which is used in the constitution of the 20 United States, is meant a legal and not merely a moral duty. 4 Wheat. 107. The 21 obligation of contracts consists in the necessity under which a man finds himself to,
22 do, or to refrain from doing something. This obligation consists generally both in foro 23 legis and in foro conscientie, though it does at times exist in one of these only. It is 24 certainly of the first, that in foro legis, which the framers of the constitution spoke, 25 when they prohibited the passage of any law impairing the obligation of contract.
See Impairing the obligation of contracts. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

26 Collateral Security, contracts. A separate obligation attached to another contract, 27 to guaranty its performance. By this term is also meant the transfer of property or of

1 other contracts to insure the performance of a principal engagement. The property
2 or securities thus conveyed are also called collateral securities. Bouviers Law
3 Dictionary, 1856 edition.

4 Guarantee, contracts. He to whom a guaranty is made. 2. The guarantee is entitled to 5 receive payment, in the first place, from the debtor, and, secondly, from the 6 guarantor. He must be careful not to give time beyond that stipulated in the original 7 agreement, to the debtor, without the consent of the guarantor; the guarantee should, at 8 the instance of the guarantor, bring an action against the principal for the recovery of the debt. But the mere omission of the guarantee to sue the principal debtor will not, in general, discharge the guarantor. Bouviers Law Dictionary 6th edition.

9 Guarantor, contracts. He who makes a guaranty. 2. The guarantor is bound to fulfill 10 the engagement he has entered into, provided the principal debtor does not. He is 11 bound only to the extent that the debtor is, and any payment made by the latter, or 12 release of him by the creditor, will operate as a release of the guarantor; or even if the 13 guarantee should give time to the debtor beyond that contained in the agreement, or substitute a new agreement, or do any other act by which the guarantor's situation would be worse, the obligation of the latter would be discharged.

14 3. A guarantor differs from a surety in this, that the former cannot be sued until a 15 failure on the part of the principal, when sued; while the latter may be sued at the same time with the principal. Bouviers Law Dictionary 6th edition.

16 Guaranty, contracts. A promise made upon a good consideration, to answer for the 17 payment of some debt, or the performance of some duty, in case of the failure of 18 another person, who is, in the first instance, liable to such payment or performance.

19 2. The English statute of frauds, 29 Car. II. c. 3, which, with modification, has been 20 adopted in most of the states; 3 Kent's Com. 86 requires, that "upon any special 21 promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another person, the 22 agreement, Or some memorandum, or note thereof, must be in writing, and signed 23 by the party to be charged therewith, or some other thereunto by him lawfully 24 authorized." This clause of the statute is not in force in Pennsylvania. To render this statute valid, under the statute, its form must be in writing; it must be made upon a sufficient consideration; and it must be to fulfill the engagement of another.

25 3. - 1. The agreement must be in writing, and signed by the party to be bound, or 26 some one authorized by him. It should substantially contain the names of the party promising, and of the person on whose behalf the promise is made; the promise itself, and the consideration for it.

1       4. - 2. The word agreement in the statute includes the consideration for the promise, 2 as well as the promise itself; if, therefore, the guaranty be for a subsisting, debt, or 3 engagement of another person, not only the engagement, but the consideration for it, 4 must appear in the writing. This has been the construction which has been given in 5 England, and which has been followed in New York and South Carolina, though it has 6 been rejected in several other states. The decisions have all turned upon the force of 7 the word agreement; and where by statute the word promise has been introduced, by 8 requiring the promise or agreement to be in writing, as in Virginia, the construction 9 has not been so strict.

10       5. - 3. The guaranty must be to answer for the debt or default of another. The 11 term debt implies, that the liability of the principal debtor had been previously 12 incurred; but a default may arise upon an executory contract, and a promise to pay for 13 goods to be furnished to another, is a collateral promise to pay on the other's default,
14 provided the credit was given, in the first instance, solely to the other. It is a general 15 rule, that when a promise is made by a third person, previous to the sale of goods, or 16 other credit given, or other liability incurred, it comes within the statute, when it is 17 conditional upon the default of another, who is solely liable in the first instance, 18 otherwise not; the only inquiry to ascertain this, is, to whom was it agreed, that the 19 vendor or creditor should look in the first instance? Many nice distinctions have been 20 made on this subject. 1st. When a party actually purchases goods himself, which are 21 to be delivered to a third person, for, his sole use, and the latter was not to be 22 responsible, this is not a case of guaranty, because the person to whom the goods 23 were furnished, never was liable. 8 T. R. 80. 2d. Where a person buys goods, or 24 incurs any other liability, jointly with another, but for the use of that other, and this 25 fact is known to the creditor, the guaranty must be in writing. 8 John. R. 89. 3d. A 26 person may make himself liable, in the third place, by adding his credit to that of 27 another, but conditionally only, in case of the other's default. This species of promise 28 comes immediately within the meaning of the statute, and in the cases is sometimes termed a collateral promise.

6. Guaranties are either special or for a particular transaction, or they are continuing guaranties; that is, they are to be valid for other transactions, though
NOT particularly mentioned. Bouviers Law Dictionary 6th edition.

Specific Purpose Statements (SPS)
Declarant's Established Legal Inalienable Rights
And Pattern of Action.

1 ¶17. First, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... Declarant, 2 Michael Willis of the Chase Family alleges that the Plaintiff, Tai Davis, does NOT
3 know all the facts affecting his claim(s). For the record, Declarant did NOT create a 4 “negotiable instrument”, which is Commercial Paper, by signing John D. Napper’s 5 “Judgment of Guilt and Sentence” March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661, which 6 justifies relief, which is a remedy for this Declarant because Tai Davis has NO tangible 7 injuries against this Declarant, yet he seeks a court order against this Declarant. Tai 8 Davis has NO legal right. The Declarant has NOT breached NOR violated any contract
9 right. The Plaintiff, Tai Davis, thereby suffered NO harm.

10 ¶18. Second, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... Declarant
11 Voided for Fraud the basis of the finding of guilt, which was by a “Plea of guilty/no 12 contest, after knowing, voluntary and intelligent waiver of all pertinent rights.” Signed 13 on by John D. Napper’s signed instrument: “Judgment of Guilt and Sentence” March 7, 14 2022 in case V1300CR201980661). Autographed under Threat, Duress and Coercion by 15 Declarant dishonoring John D. Napper’s presentment, with the intent to Void for Fraud
16 any creation of any negotiable instrument. ... which justifies relief, which is a remedy
17 for this Declarant because Tai Davis has NO tangible injuries against this Declarant yet 18 he seeks a court order against this Declarant. Tai Davis has NO legal right. The 19 Declarant has NOT breached NOR violated any contract right. The Plaintiff, Tai Davis, 20 thereby suffered NO harm.

21 ¶19. Third, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... Declarant has an 22 established legal inalienable right to Good Faith by others. Good faith is central to the 23 Commercial Paper John D. Napper’s signed instrument: “Judgment of Guilt and 24 Sentence” March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661) is VOID FOR FRAUD because 25 there are legal reasons why payment MUST NOT occur, which justifies relief, which is 26 a remedy for this Declarant because Tai Davis has NO tangible injuries, as a holder in
28

1 due course with this Declarant as a party to a contract. Yet Plaintiff seeks a court order
2 against this Declarant for Breach of Contract where there is NONE. Tai Davis has NO
3 legal right. The Declarant has NOT breached NOR violated any contract right. The 4 Plaintiff, Tai Davis, thereby suffered NO harm as a holder in due course against this 5 Declarant.

6 ¶20. Forth, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... Declarant has an 7 established legal inalienable right to know if Plaintiff Tai Davis, is a holder, a person,
8 who took John D. Napper's Commercial Paper, (John D. Napper's signed instrument:
9 "Judgment of Guilt and Sentence" March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661), subject
10 to Plaintiff false belief that Plaintiff would be paid for a period of 2 years for supervised 11 probation by this Declarant. The Plaintiff's false belief is that he will be paid by this 12 Declarant and yet there were NO legal reasons why payment would occur is a result of 13 the holder, Tai Davis, taking (Judge Napper's signed instrument: "Judgment of Guilt and 14 Sentence" March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661) for value, and believing the 15 commercial paper to be good, without inspection of Judge Napper's Commercial Paper 16 to authenticate it's negotiability. The Plaintiff knew OR should have known that this 17 Declarant did NOT endorse said defective instrument. It was refused by Declarant.
18 However, Declarant did autograph under Threat, Duress and Coercion, which justifies 19 relief, which is a remedy for this Declarant because Tai Davis has NO tangible injuries, 20 NO right of recover against this Declarant as a holder in due course. Yet Plaintiff seeks a 21 court order against this Declarant. Tai Davis has NO legal right. The Declarant has NOT 22 breached OR violated any contract right of the Plaintiff Tai Davis, thereby Plaintiff has 23 suffered NO harm.

24 ¶21. Fifth, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... Declarant has an 25 established legal inalienable right to know, on the record, if, on the other hand, Plaintiff 26 Tai Davis, the holder, who accepted John D. Napper's defective Commercial Paper,
28

(Judge Napper's signed instrument: "Judgment of Guilt and Sentence" March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661), that was presented in open court and has been dishonored (via autographed under Threat, Duress and Coercion) by this Declarant. Plaintiff, Tai Davis, knew or should have known that something was wrong with John D. Napper's Commercial Paper, since it had been presented and dishonored by this Declarant, and therefore, Plaintiff CANNOT allege that John D. Napper's Commercial Paper was accepted in the good faith belief that it was valid.

¶22. Sixth, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... "State of Arizona" CANNOT issue a Bill of Credit because the de jure "State of Arizona" works for "We The People". So, <sup>4</sup> "The State of Arizona" MUST be paid according to "Article 1 Section 10," of The United States Constitution, which states:

"No state shall make any thing but gold and silver coin a <sup>5</sup> tender in payment of debts."

¶23. Seventh, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... for the record, ALL of John D. Napper's signed instruments, including but NOT limited to: "Judgment

4 The Constitution of the State of Arizona. Article VI. Judicial Department. §25. Style of process; conduct of prosecutions in name of state. Section 25. The style of process shall be "The State of Arizona", and prosecutions shall be conducted in the name of the state and by its authority.

5 Uniform Commercial Code §3-603. Tender of Payment.

(a) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract.

(b) If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.

(c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

1 of Guilt and Sentence” March 7, 2022 in case V1300CR201980661 stated that 2 “Defendant shall pay the following financial obligations through the Clerk of the 3 Superior Court in Yavapai County this date or as follows:...”

4 ¶24. Eighth, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... for the record, 5 Declarant has attempted to pay timely under Threat, Duress and Coercion because of 6 threat to Declarant’s life, liberty and property. Defendant tendered payment, according 7 to “Article 1 Section 10,” of The United States Constitution, which states: “No state
8 shall make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts.”
9 Defendant tendered the payment under Threat, Duress and Coercion to The Court 10 Clerk, Donna McQuality, and her Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, both of which 11 have committed gross violations and usurpations of law, detriment to Declarant’s life, 12 liberty and property, both of which relinquished the sovereignty of “The State of 13 Arizona”, to some foreign character OR powers by converting the Declarant’s property 14 in violation of United States Code Title 18. Crimes and Criminal Procedure, §654.
15 Officer or employee of United States converting property of another.

16 ¶25. Ninth, established legal inalienable right and pattern of action... for the record, 17 Declarant tendered payment to the Court Clerk, Donna McQuality, and her Chief 18 Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, according to the Common Law, which is recognized by 19 the “Uniform Commercial Code §3-603. Tender of Payment.” Declarant tendered 20 payment, even though there is NO valid instrument signed by this Declarant. Why 21 should I pay a debt I DO NOT owe? Because I choose to keep from being arrested and 22 jailed for contempt of court. I attempted to pay to the Court Clerk, Donna McQuality, 23 who is the a person entitled to enforce the instrument according to John D. Napper’s 24 Court Order. The effect of Declarant’s tender was governed by principles of law 25 applicable to tender of payment typically under a simple contract. Under Chief Deputy 26 Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, once again, with Declarant’s tender of payment of an alleged 27

1 void obligation to pay an instrument was made to the Court Clerk, Donna McQuality,
2 the person entitled to enforce the instrument. Declarant's tender of silver dollar coins,
3 according to the 1792 Coinage Act, was refused, therefore, according to Common Law
4 and the Uniform Commercial Code the debt was paid. In the words of the Uniform
5 Commercial Code §3-603. Tender of Payment, there was discharge, to the extent of 6 the amount of the tender. For the record, this Declarant NEVER has been an indorser
7 OR accommodation party with an obligation. This Declarant was able and ready to pay
8 on the supposed due date at the place of payment stated in the instrument, which is John 9 D. Napper's Judgment Order. Declarant made tender of payment on the due date to the 10 person entitled to enforce the instrument, which was defined with a witness. Next, 11 Declarant traveled to the Court Clerk, Donna McQuality's Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly
12 Gregorio, in Verde Valley. Once again, Declarant's tender of payment of an alleged 13 void obligation to pay in silver dollar coins, according to the 1792 Coinage Act, was 14 denied.

15 Code Pleading "Legal Terms"

16 Code Pleading: "...Under code pleading the plaintiff has only to make a 17 statement of facts that, if true, justify legal relief. The only requirement is that those 18 facts fit the general pattern of some established legal right and that they state a claim on 19 which relief can be granted. Furthermore, the plaintiff can present alternative or even 20 inconsistent sets off acts and leave it to the trier of fact to establish which are correct.
21 This is allowed when the plaintiff does NOT know all the facts affecting the claim, so 22 long as the pleading is made honestly and in Good Faith. More than one cause of action
23 can be alleged but they MUST be stated as separate counts. For example, some states 24 allow a simplified form of pleading of a breach of contract. The plaintiff may simply 25 state that money is owed but has NOT been paid or services have been rendered but 26 payment has NOT been made.

27 Code pleading solved many of the problems associated with common-law 28 pleading but it also spawned a new controversy. The requirement that a plaintiff set out a claim by reciting facts justifying relief left open the question of what facts might be

1 included. It has often been said that a plaintiff need plead Ultimate Facts, plead NOT
2 legal conclusions. Case after case has been fought on this point. The distinction
3 primarily concerns how much detail MUST be given. A plaintiff MUST be able to show
4 that he or she has a legal right, the defendant breached or violated that right, and the 5 plaintiff thereby suffered some harm." From West's Encyclopedia of American Law, 6 edition 2. (Emphasis add).

7 Good Faith: "...Good faith is also central to the Commercial Paper
8 (checks, drafts, promissory notes, certificates of deposit) concept of a holder in due 9 course. A holder is a person who takes an instrument, such as a check, subject to the 10 reasonable belief that it will be paid and that there are no legal reasons why payment will 11 not occur. If the holder has taken the check for value and in good faith believes the 12 check to be good, she or he is a holder in due course, with sole right to recover payment.
13 If, on the other hand, the holder accepts a check that has been dishonored (stamped with 14 terms such as "insufficient funds," "account closed," and "payment stopped"), she or he 15 has knowledge that something is wrong with the check and therefore cannot allege the 16 check was accepted in the good faith belief that it was valid." From West's 17 Encyclopedia of American Law, edition 2. (Emphasis add).

18 Ultimate Facts: "...The concept of ultimate facts used to be an essential 19 part of preparing a Pleading = in a civil action. Until the late 1930s, the rules of Civil 20 Procedure in federal and state courts required parties to plead on the basis of a 21 statement of facts constituting the Cause of Action or defense. These ultimate facts
22 alleged the substance of the cause of action and were distinguished from evidentiary 23 facts, which concerned the particular events of the case, and conclusions of law. The 24 highly technical distinctions among ultimate facts, evidentiary facts, and conclusions of 25 law created great confusion and often led to the dismissal of cases based on a pleading 26 mistake....

27 Over time, however, Code Pleading became very technical and required 28 the pleader to set forth the facts underlying and demonstrating the existence of the cause of action. The pleading of ultimate facts was necessary, while the inclusion of evidentiary facts and conclusions of law was improper. Judges and attorneys found it difficult, if NOT impossible, to draw meaningful and consistent distinctions among these three terms. With NO clear dividing line between a fact that demonstrated a cause of action and one that introduced specific evidence, courts made formal and often Arbitray decisions that were unrelated to the merits of the case. Courts demanded a high degree of specificity and bound the parties to prove the ultimate facts alleged or lose the lawsuit.

1 This requirement was particularly harsh because it forced a party to allege detailed facts
2 early in the case when there was still uncertainty over what facts had occurred. By the 3 1930s legal commentators agreed that the need to plead ultimate facts was hindering the 4 cause of justice. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which were adopted in 1938, 5 eliminated the ultimate fact requirement and changed the philosophy behind the 6 plaintiff's complaint and the defendant's answer. In place of ultimate facts, rule 8 (a)
7 provides that the complaint shall contain "a short and plain statement of the claim 8 showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Likewise, the defendant "shall state in 9 short and plain terms" the defenses to the plaintiff's complaint. The rules DO NOT 10 require that only facts be alleged. Most states have adopted the federal rules in whole or 11 in part, and the need to state ultimate facts in a pleading is NO longer of great 12 importance." From West's Encyclopedia of American Law, edition 2. (Emphasis add).

13 Arbitrary, irrational; capricious. The term arbitrary describes a 14 course of action or a decision that is NOT based on reason OR judgment but on 15 personal will OR discretion without regard to rules OR standards.

16 An arbitrary decision is one made without regard for the facts and circumstances 17 presented, and it connotes a disregard of the evidence.

18 In many instances, the term implies an element of bad faith, and it may be used 19 synonymously with tyrannical OR despotic.

20 The term arbitrary refers to the standard of review used by courts when reviewing a 21 variety of decisions on appeal. For example, the arbitrary and capricious standard of 22 review is the principle standard of review used by judicial courts hearing appeals that 23 challenge decisions issued by administrative bodies.

24 At the federal level and in most states, administrative law is a body of law made by 25 Executive Branch agencies that have been delegated power to promulgate rules, 26 regulations, and orders, render decisions, and otherwise decide miscellaneous 27 disputes. Non-elected officials in administrative agencies are delegated this authority in 28 order to streamline the often lengthy and more deliberative process of legislative lawmaking that frequently grinds to a halt amid partisan gridlock. Although administrative agencies are generally designed to make lawmaking and regulation simpler, more direct, and less formal, they still MUST provide due process to affected parties. They MUST also comply with administrative procedures created by popularly elected state and federal legislatures.

One important right recognized in most administrative proceedings is the right of Judicial Review. Citizens aggrieved by the actions of an administrative body may*

1 typically ask a judicial court to review those actions for error. In establishing the 2 standard by which judicial courts will review the actions of an administrative body, state
3 and federal legislatures seek to provide agencies with enough freedom to do their work effectively and efficiently, while ensuring that individual rights are protected.

4 Congress tried to maintain this delicate balance in the administrative procedure act 5 (APA). The APA limits the scope of a reviewing court's authority to determining 6 whether the agency acted arbitrarily and capriciously in exercising its discretion. 5 7 USCA §701. In making this determination, the reviewing court will NOT find that the 8 administrative body acted arbitrarily unless the agency failed to follow proper procedures OR rendered a decision that is so clearly erroneous that it MUST be set aside to avoid doing an injustice to the parties.

9 Specifically, a reviewing court MUST determine whether the agency articulated a 10 rational connection between the factual findings it made and the decision it rendered.
11 The reviewing court MUST also examine the record to ensure that the agency decision 12 was founded on a reasoned evaluation of the relevant factors. Although agencies are 13 given wide latitude, reviewing courts MUST be careful NOT to rubber-stamp administrative decisions that they deem inconsistent with a statutory mandate OR that frustrate the congressional policy underlying a statute.

14 Typically, reviewing courts look at the whole record in making this determination, 15 take into account the agency's expertise on any particular matters, and accept any 16 factual findings made by the agency. However, the reviewing court is free to determine 17 how the law should apply to those facts. If the reviewing court concludes that the 18 agency's actions were so arbitrary as to be out-side any reasonable interpretation of the law, the court may overturn the agency's decision OR remand the case back to the 19 agency for further proceedings in accordance with the court's decision.

20 A reviewing court's determination that an agency acted in an arbitrary manner will 21 often depend on the technical requirements of the governing law. For example, courts 22 are often asked to determine whether a federal agency has acted arbitrarily under the 23 national environmental policy act (NEPA). Pub. L. 91-190, §2, Jan. 1, 1970, 83 Stat.
24 852, as amended, 42 U.S.C.A. §§4321 et seq. In one case the Ninth Circuit ruled that the 25 Transportation Department acted arbitrarily under NEPA, when it failed to prepare an 26 environmental impact statement, failed to consider whether its regulations would have 27 violated air quality limits, and failed to perform localized analyses for areas most likely 28 to be affected by increased truck traffic. Public Citizen versus Department of Transportation, 316 F. 3d 1002 (9th Cir. 2003). From West's Encyclopedia of

1 ¶71. Fact-20. In most of the cases cited by the counsel for the plaintiff in error the suit
2 has been brought by party to the original transaction or on a contract so connected with 3 it as to be inseparable from it. It is when a vender in a foreign country packs up goods
4 for the purpose of enabling the vendee to smuggle them or where a suit is brought on a
5 policy of insurance on an illegal voyage or on a contract which amounts to maintenance
6 or of one for the sale of the lottery tickets where such sale was prohibited or on a bill 7 which is payable in notes issued contrary to law in these and all similar cases the 8 consideration in the vary contract on which the suit is brought is vicious. And the 9 plaintiff has contributed to the illegal transaction.

11 Note: Those are all void. There holding you liable on the notes and obligations.
12 Corporations were created for their own profit and gain. Take their check to their 13 bank and see if they have dollars in their account. Send back to them with notice of 14 the deficiency in the matter. Issuing a check with insufficient funds is a crime.

14 Forming a state qualifications.

15 Enabling Acts after the Civil War.

16 Act of Congress.

17 Section four (4)

18 Section four constitutional convention requirements of constitution. The members
19 of convention thus elected shall meet at the capital of the said territory on the day 20 to be fixed by said governor, chief justice and United States attorney not more than 21 sixty days subsequent from the day of election which time of meeting shall be 22 contained in the aforesaid proclamation mentioned in the third section in this Act.
23 After organization shall declare on behalf of said people of the said territory that 24 they adopt a constitution of the United States whereupon said convention shall be 25 and is hereby authorized to form a constitution for state government in said
26 territory provided that the constitution shall be Republican in form and make no
27 distinction in political and political rights on account of race or color except Indians 28 not taxed and not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States and the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

Note: Many of the Enabling Acts were stricken down by Johnson right after Lincoln's death. It took a number of years to get a number of states admitted to the

1 union because he kept vetoing the Enabling Acts as being unconstitutional
2 Constitutional. Those are the qualifications of forming a state. They violated the 3 Constitution and the principles of the Declaration of Independence because they are 4 not the state.

5 Federal Government Claims Control Over
6 The Several States.

7 ¶72. Fact-21. New ruling on the 10th Amendment.

8 Gregory versus Ashcroft

9 ¶73. Fact-22. There going back into history, reviewing the anti federalist papers etc., 10 and rethinking the 10th Amendment. They were looking at subsidies. If they 11 subsidized an office they were liable because they controlled the office. It was a 12 contract matter. So if they subsidized any OPERATIONS in the state they claimed 13 control over it. Bonding subsidizes tell the truth of who directs, controls, and 14 finances or subsidizes their operation. Only then can we find the principal. But when 15 the U.S. or the Secretary of Treasury or others were subsidizing their training
16 programs, or their operations of their department or agency then the party making 17 that subsidize claim the control. This case has to do with a judge and certain 18 operations of the ADEA.

20 Atascadero State Hospital versus Scanland.
21 1985 Case.

22 ¶74. Fact-23. A more in-depth look at 10th Amendment, anti federalist papers and the 23 like. It's actually the most in-depth study I've seen out of them in a long time.

24 Social Security System.
25 Halvering versus Davis Case
26 81 Lawyers Edition 1312
27

¶75. Fact-24. The proceeds of both taxes are to paid into the Treasury like Internal Revenue Taxes generally and are not earmarked in any way. Social Security goes to the Secretary of the Treasury. And they aren't earmarked for anything. The proceeds are gone, there is no trust fund!

2 USC Section 4 60C3 [See Appendix]

Withholding and Remittance of State Income Tax by Secretary of Senate.

Note: They are going through state income tax.

5 USC 5517 [See Appendix]

Withholding State Income Taxes.

¶76. Fact-25. That's all under the Secretary of Treasury under A2.

5 USC 5520 [See Appendix]

Withholding of City and County Income or Employment Taxes.

¶77. Fact-26. That's under the Secretary of Treasury.

Atascadero State Hospital versus Scanland.
1985 Case. Page 171

¶78. Fact-27. Summary. Eleventh Amendment did not bar the action since a states consent to sue in federal court could be inferred by its participation and programs funded by the Rehabilitation Act. So if they participated in the program there was consent they had waived the Eleventh Amendment, they had taken the funds they were liable. Anytime there subsidized that wipes that out.

State Citizens
Privileges And Immunities of Citizens
Under Article IV Section 2 of the Constitution

1823

Corpeal versus Coreal

6 Federal Cases 550 or 650?

Case number 3230 page 551

1 ¶79. Fact-28. The next question is whether this Act infringes that section of the 2 constitution which declares it's citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges
3 and immunities of citizens in the several states. The inquiry is what are the privileges
4 and immunities of citizens in the several states? We feel no hesitation in finding these 5 expressions to those privileges and immunities which are in their nature fundamental 6 which belong of right to all citizens of all free governments and which have at all times 7 been enjoyed by the citizens of the several states which compose this union from the 8 time of becoming free, independent and sovereign. What these fundamental principals 9 are it would perhaps be more tedious and difficult to enumerate. They may however be 10 all comprehended under the following general heads: Protection by the government, the 11 enjoyment of life and liberty with the right to acquire and possess property of every 12 kind; and to pursue and obtain happiness and safety. subjected never the less to such 13 restrictions to the government may justly prescribe for the good of the whole.

14 The right of a citizen of one state to pass through or to reside in any other state for the 15 purpose of trade, agriculture, professional pursuits or otherwise. To claim the benefit of 16 writ of habeas corpus. To institute and maintain actions of any kind in the courts of the 17 state. To take hold and dispose of property either real or personal. And an exemption 18 from higher taxes or impositions that are paid by the other citizens of the state, may be 19 mentioned as some of the particular privileges and immunities of citizens which are 20 clearly embraced by the general description of privileges deemed to be fundamental. To 21 which may be added the elected franchise as regulated and established by the laws of the 22 constitution of the state in which it is to be exercised. These and many others which 23 might be mentioned are strictly speaking privileges and immunities and the enjoyment of 24 them by the citizens of each state in every other state was manifestly calculated to use 25 the expressions of the preamble with the corresponding provision in the old Articles of

1 Confederation. The better to secure and perpetuate mutual friendship and intercourse
2 among the people of the different states of the Union.

3 ¶80. Fact-29. This is commonly cited in Title 42 suits to describe the privileges and 4 immunities of citizens under Article IV Section 2 of the Constitution. This is the 5 primary case listing the privileges and immunities. We may need to use this clause.
6 It only applies to state citizens! Does not apply to U.S. citizens. If someone went 7 down and filed a voters registration statement under penalty of perjury they are U.S.
8 citizens.

9 History of Banking

10 Encyclopedia Britannia

11 "Banking" page 37

12 ¶81. Fact-30. Ancient Medieval and Continental European origins there are records of 13 loans by the temples of Babylon as early as 2000 BC. Banking came out of the Temple 14 of Babylon. Come out of her my people.

15 Federal Reserve Banks Are Private Corporations.

20 ¶82. Fact-31. Federal Reserve banks are not federal instrumentality's for the purpose of 21 the Federal Torts Claim Act they are independently privately owned and locally 22 controlled corporations. Note: Banking is private. Computer World magazine ran an 23 add for Federal Reserve bank of San Francisco for programmers as follows: "Some 24 people still think were a branch of the government we're not, we're the banks bank".

3 ¶83. Fact-32. Federal employees who are “citizens of the United States”, who are also 4 tax collectors, who are leased out to the several states by Congress. Who do they work
5 for? All national officials receive checks, which are international obligations, national 6 officials includes ALL county and state officials who are acting under <sup>18</sup> Pretense and <sup>19</sup>
7 Color of office. ALL these national officials receiving checks are acting Under False

14 Whoever falsely assumes OR pretends to be an officer OR employee acting 15 under the authority of the United States OR any department, agency OR 16 officer thereof, and acts as such, OR in such pretended character demands
OR obtains any money, paper, document, OR thing of value, shall be fined 20 or employee of the United States”

22 18 Pretention, French law. The claim made to a thing which a party believes himself entitled to 23 demand, but which is not admitted or adjudged to be his.

24 2. The words rights, actions and pretensions, are usually joined, not that they are synonymous, for right is something positive and certain, action is what is demanded, while pretention is sometimes not even accompanied by a demand. Bourvier’s Law Dictionary, 1856 edition.

25 19 Color of Office, criminal law. A wrong committed by an officer under the pretended authority of 26 his office; in some cases the act amounts to a misdemeanor, and the party may then be indicted. In 27 other cases, the remedy to redress the wrong is by an action. Bourvier’s Law Dictionary, 1856 edition.

1 Page 2414. Officers and Employees. Purpose of the proposed new 18 USC 219
2 [See Appendix 18 USC 219] seems clear to prevent the person holding a federal 3 office from using the influence of that office to gain favorable results for a foreign 4 principal. The proposal would NOT prohibit a former officer employee from acting as an agent of a foreign principal provided the agent registered as such.

5 Soliciting Funds to China requires registration as agent of foreign principal.

6 Page 2415.

7 Under existing law the government is required to submit proof of an agents 8 relationship to it's foreign principal and to his activities. But it is not required to 9 prove that such activities have been conducted at the order, request, or under the 10 direction or control of the foreign principal. To require this as does Senate Bill 11 2126 weakens the Act by placing an unreasonable burden upon the government.
12 The effect of the change is illustrated by the following hypothetical case. Under 13 existing law if a person within the United States solicits funds for Communist 14 China he is an agent of a foreign principal and will be required to register and to 15 file.

17 Commissioners Under Commissions
18 Are Agents Of A Foreign Principal!!!

19 ¶84. Fact-33. Commissioners under commissions are <sup>20</sup> Agents of a Foreign Principal

20 Principal, n. The source of authority or right. Law of agency. The term "principal" describes one 21 who has permitted or directed another i.e. agent or servant) to act for his benefit and subject to his 22 direction and control. Principal includes in its meaning the term "master", a species of principal 23 who, in addition to other control, has a right to control the physical conduct of the species of 24 agents known as servants, as to whom special rules are applicable with reference to harm caused by 25 their physical acts.

26 If, at the time of a transaction conducted by an agent, the other party thereto has notice that the 27 agent is acting for a principal and of the principal's identity, the principal is a disclosed principal.
28 If the other party has NO notice of the principal's identity, the principal for whom the agent is acting is a partially disclosed principal. If the other party has NO notice that the agent is acting for

1 under United States Code Title 18 §219. Officers and employees acting as AGENTS of 2 foreign principals, and Filing False and Fraudulent Statements under United States

8 §219. Officers and employees acting as AGENTS of foreign principals.

9 (a) Whoever, being a public official, is OR acts as an agent of a foreign

11 1938 OR a lobbyist required to register under the Lobbying Disclosure Act
12 of 1995 in connection with the representation of a foreign entity, as defined 13 in section 3(6) of that Act shall be fined under this title OR imprisoned for 14 NOT more than two years, OR both.

15 (b) Nothing in this section shall apply to the employment of any AGENT of 16 a foreign principal as a special Government employee in any case in which 17 the head of the employing AGENCY certifies that such employment is 18 required in the national interest. A copy of any certification under this 19 paragraph shall be forwarded by the head of such AGENCY to the Attorney
20 General who shall cause the same to be filed with the registration statement
21 and other documents filed by such AGENT, and made available for public 22 inspection in accordance with section 6 of the Foreign Agents Registration 23 Act of 1938, as amended.

24 (c) For the purpose of this section “public official” means Member of 25 Congress, Delegate, OR Resident Commissioner, either before OR after he 26 has qualified, OR an officer OR employee or person acting for OR on behalf 27 of the United States, OR any department, agency, OR branch of

15 Amendment V
16 (1791)

17 NO person shall be held to answer for a capital, OR otherwise infamous 18 crime, unless on a presentment OR indictment of a Grand Jury, except in 19 cases arising in the land OR naval forces, OR in the Militia, when in actual 20 service in time of War OR public danger; NOR shall any person be subject 21 for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life OR limb; NOR shall 22 be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, NOR be 23 deprived of life, liberty, OR property, without due process of law; NOR 24 shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

25 21 Corruption. An act done with an intent to give some advantage inconsistent with official duty and 26 the rights of others. It includes bribery, but is more comprehensive; because an act may be corruptly 27 done, though the advantage to be derived from it be not offered by another. Merl. Rep. h. t.

28 2. By corruption, sometimes, is understood something against law; as, a contract by which the borrower agreed to pay the lender usurious interest. It is said, in such case, that it was corruptly agreed, &c. Bouvier's Law Dictionary, 1856 Edition.

HISTORICAL AND REVISION NOTES

Based on title 18, U.S.C., 1940 ed., §183 (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 321, §97, 35 Stat. 1106). The phrase “Whoever being an officer OR agent of the United States OR of any department OR agency thereof,” was substituted for the words “*Any officer connected with, OR employed in the Internal Revenue Service of the United States * * * And any officer of the United States, OR any assistant of such officer,*” in order to clarify scope of section. (See definitive section 6 and reviser’s note thereunder.) The embezzlement of Government money OR property is adequately covered by section 641 of this title. The smaller punishment for an offense involving $100 OR less was added. (See reviser’s notes under sections 641 and 645 of this title.) Minor changes were made in phraseology.

¶88. Fact-37. The Court Clerk, Donna McQuality, and her Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, have wrongfully used government seals on Federal Reserve notes in violation of United States Code Title 18. Crimes and Criminal Procedure, §1017. Government seals wrongfully used and instruments wrongfully sealed.

26 Federal Reserve notes –

27 Are NOT “Dollars” They Are Obligations!!!

28 ¶89. Fact-38. The Federal Reserve note has a supposedly U.S. Government Seal, which is wrongfully affixed, which is NOT considered a Seal anymore. Federal reserve agents are overturning the de jure economic system, overturning and overthrowing the de jure form of government, which was republican into a socialist democracy. This Declarant CANNOT and will NOT assist anyone overthrowing the de jure form of government by discharging debts with worthless securities as an agent of the Federal Reserve System.
This Declarant MUST pay my debts with silver and gold dollars, which are the only

1 dollars known in law. Declarant MUST obey the de jure law, discharging debts with 2 worthless securities is about 20 years in prison, Declarant MUST be careful about who I 3 associate with. Declarant is NOT a “Federal reserve AGENT”!!! Who the Federal 4 System is making advances to through their Federal reserve AGENTS The Court Clerk, 5 Donna McQuality, and her Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, who have committed 6 a gross violation and usurpation of law, detrimental to Declarant’s life, liberty and 7 property.

9 The Court Clerk, Donna McQuality,
10 And Her Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, 11 Are Overthrowing The De Jure Government!!!

12 ¶90. Fact-39. Federal reserve AGENTS The Court Clerk, Donna McQuality, and her 13 Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio, demand receiving <sup>22</sup> advances in Federal Reserve 14 notes as payment for supposed debts, which relinquishes the sovereignty, to some 15 foreign character OR powers by converting the Declarant’s property, silver dollar coins,

16 22 Advances, contracts. Said to take place when, a factor or agent pays to his principal, a sum of,
17 money on the credit of goods belonging to the principal, which are placed, or are to be placed, in 18 the possession of the factor or agent, in order to reimburse himself out of the proceeds of the sale.
19 In such case the factor or agent has a lien to the amount of his claim. Cowp. R. 251; 2 Burr. R. 931;
20 Liverm. on Ag. 38; Journ. of Law, 146.

21 2. The agent or factor has a right not only to advances made to the owner – of goods, but also for 22 expenses and disbursements made in the course of his agency, out of his own moneys, on account 23 of, or for the benefit of his principal; such as incidental charges for warehouse – room, duties, 24 freight, general average, salvage, repairs, journeys, and all other acts done to preserve the property
25 of the principal, and to enable the agent to accomplish the objects of the principal, are to be paid 26 fully by the latter. Story on Bailm. 197; Story on Ag. 335.

27 3. The advances, expenses and disbursements of the agent must, however, have been made in 28 good faith, without any default on his part. Liv. on Ag. 14–16; Smith on Merc. 56 Paley on Ag. by Lloyd, 109; 6 East, R. 392; 2 Bouv. list. n. 1340.

4. When the advances and disbursements have been properly made, the agent is entitled not only to the return of the money so advanced, but to interest upon such advances and disbursements, whenever from the nature of the business, or the usage of trade, or the particular agreement of the parties, it may be fairly presumed to be stipulated for, or due to the agent. 7 Wend. R. 315; 3 Binn.
R. 295; 3 Caines’ R. 226; 1 H. Bl. 303; 3 Camp. R. 467 15 East, R. 223; 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 1341. This just rule coincides with the civil law on this subject. Dig. 17, 1, 12, 9; Poth. Pand. lib. 17, t. 1, n. 74.
Bouvier’s Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

1 into worthless securities, which are obligations, which is how much one owes NOT how 2 much one own es, which can only discharge a debt, which bill of credit can never pay a
3 debt!!! Declarant MUST "Pay" according to John D. Napper's Court Order. Discharging
4 Declarant's supposed debts would be a violation of the Court Order demanding
5 payment!!! This Declarant is NOT going to be "cunningly coerced" into disobeying
6 John D. Napper's Court Order by Federal reserve AGENTS The Court Clerk, Donna
7 McQuality, and her Chief Deputy Clerk, Kelly Gregorio.

CHANGE OF NAME

7 Section 203(a) of act Aug. 23, 1935, changed name of Federal Reserve
8 Board to Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

13 DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
14 WASHINGTON
15 February 18, 1977

16 Dear Mr.:

17 This is in response to your letter of November 23, 1976 in which you request a 18 definition for the dollar as distinguished from a Federal Reserve note.

19 Federal Reserve notes are not dollars. Those notes are denominated in 20 dollars, which are the unit of account of United States money. The Coinage Act of 21 1792 established the dollars as the basic unit of United States currency, by 22 providing that "The money of account of the United States shall be expressed in 23 dollars or units, dimes or tenths, cents, or hundredth ... U.S.C. §371.

24 The fact that Federal Reserve notes may not be converted into gold or silver 25 does not render them worthless. Mr. Bernard of the Federal Reserve Board is quite 26 correct in stating that the value of the dollar is its purchasing power. Professor

1 Samuelson, in his Economics, notes that the dollar, as our medium of exchange, is 2 wanted not for its own sake, but for the things it will buy.

3 I trust this information responds to your inquiry.

4 Sincerely,

5 Russell L. Munk
6 Assistant General Council

7 There Is a Misconception RE:
8 Who "The Treasury Department" Is! It's International!!!

9 ¶91. Fact-40. The Secretary of the Treasury actually works for the United Nations
10 Organization INTERPOL. A lot of times they work under the Omnibus Crime 11 Control Act which are treaty operations. Drug prosecution is under the extradition 12 clauses of the Development Bank Acts.

13 ¶92. Fact-41. Declarant can NOT contract with a belligerent. Belligerents issue licenses 14 allowing certain transactions to control international commerce. Enemy belligerent party 15 #1 issues a license to his fellow belligerent's on party #1's side, such as the Federal 16 Reserve, to contract with the enemy belligerent party #2 to destroy enemy party #2.

17 ¶93. Fact-42. Is it Possible For Declarant to be Neutral? Under the circumstances 18 Declarant has to declare an independent status to be neutral. America is still at civil war.
19 Declarant's position is that belligerent party #1 is a foreign power [NOT the 20 government] who declared war on themselves, their people, making their people 21 belligerent party #2 of the declared war. Declarant CANNOT contract with either 22 belligerent and MUST have a viable civilized society to live in and maintain the 23 sovereignty. The belligerents are NOT the sovereignty they are at civil war with each 24 other for over a hundred and fifty years in this country (since 1994). Belligerent party #1
25 is NOT the government they are the enemy. They have NO intelligence, NO honor, NO
26 integrity, NO virtue, the enemy foreign power can NOT meet its obligations either 27

1 subjectively or objectively it is simply a rogue organization of liars, cheats, thieves,
2 frauds and barbarics. It is a piratical organization that has never declared, in history of 3 the human race, to be a civilized governmental structure.

4 How Belligerents Conduct Commerce.

5 ¶94. Fact-43. The U.S. party #1 belligerent declares U.S. citizens to be workers and 6 employees of the U.S. that MUST obtain social security numbers according to the 1939
7 Social Security Act. The states are in, a state of incorporation, as instrumentality's of 8 the U.S. The U.S. instrumentality, the state's [as corporations, and fellow belligerents]
9 contract for hire U.S. workers to conduct commerce. The U.S. workers for the states
10 [the licensed corporate instrumentality's of the belligerent U.S.] are employees of the 11 U.S. The 1935 Emergency Relief Act declares workers to be employees of the U.S. that 12 MUST obtain social security numbers according to the 1939 Social Security Act, 13 amending the 1935 Act. The states are NOT allowed to hire workers who are NOT
14 employees of the U.S. Therefore all workers for the state MUST obtain social security 15 numbers to work for the state instrumentality's of the U. S. The U.S. would NOT give 16 the states instrumentality's gifts, grants, loans, or subsidies unless the people working 17 on those projects have social security number proving they are in fact employees of the 18 United States.

19 Jury.

20 ¶95. Fact-44. An employee of the United States can NOT sit on a jury. Declarant
21 always ask when I voir dire <sup>23</sup> a jury do they have a social security number if so I 22 dismiss for cause because employees of the United States can NOT sit on a jury.

23 <sup>23</sup> Voir dire. To speak the truth. This phrase denotes the preliminary examination which the court and 24 attorneys make of prospective jurors to determine their qualification and suitability to serve as 25 jurors. Peremptory challenges or challenges for cause may result from such examination. See 26 Challenge. Blacks Law Dictionary 6th edition.

1 Supreme Court case [U.S versus Griffith, 2 Fed 2nd 95 1924, Employee of U.S. can
2 not sit on a grand or petit jury] supports this fact. NO they have a problem they can
3 either grant a petit <sup>24</sup> and how is he going to be trier of the facts without being bias and 4 prejudice? He also is an employee of the U.S. creating a substantial problem. The 5 plaintiff may be accepting bribes from the plaintiff's principal the International 6 Monetary Fund. Under Public Law 95-147 Federal Employees are paid out of this Act
7 it is in the legislative history. Treasury Tax and Loan Accounts. Federal Employees 8 has to have social security numbers.

9 The Belligerents Through Their Banks.

10 ¶96. Fact-45. The banks and the United States told individual who was dealing with the 11 banks to return the gold to the bank or under criminal pains and penalties under 12 International Commercial Law with the Banks they would go to the penitentiary.
13 Taking the gold out of the banks in mass was considered a belligerent act by 14 belligerents. An act of economic warfare even though the banks committed economical 15 warfare against the people by failing to keep their obligation to maintain the integrity of 16 the notes and securities. In 1933 the Securities Act exempted the banks from the 17 operation of securities fraud laws because they had perpetrated a fraud on the public. So 18 the U.S., the banks and the states excluded themselves from the operations of securities 19 fraud. War was declared on people who banked and could be tracked through 20 banking. The banks demanded the return of the people's gold under the treat of 21 prosecution and penitentiary time. The banks declared war on their own people 22 [customers]. Dealing with the banks is a belligerent status. I deal in gold contracts and

25 24 Petit, sometimes corrupted into petty. A French word signifying little, small. It is frequently used, 26 as petit larceny, petit jury, petit treason. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 edition.
27 Pettit, TREASON, English law. The killing of a master by his servant; a husband by his wife; a 28 superior by a secular or religious man. In the United States this is like any other murder. See High, Treason; Treason. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

1 not subject to 12 USC 89 [See Appendix 12 USC 89]. They do NOT want to talk to me
2 they have NO reason to talk to me I have NO thing to do with them.

3 U.S. is NOT a GOVERNMENT.

4 ¶97. Fact-46. If they declared war on the people who are the sovereignty there is NO
5 more obligation to you. They can't meet there obligations why do we keep calling them
6 a government? We can NOT be so loose with language and concepts.

7 Treasury Accounts and Loan Accounts

8 ¶98. Fact-47. Under Public Law 95-147 Federal Employees are paid out of this Act 9 according to the legislative history. Treasury Tax and Loan Accounts. All Federal 10 Employees MUST have social security numbers.

11 This Is How Treasury Department
12 Pays Their Employees.

13 ¶99. Fact-48. As the tax and other payments were made on individual accounts to the 14 banks and then withdrawn from the banking system for deposit in the Federal Reserve 15 the money supply was reduced the Federal Reserve then had to buy securities from the 16 banks in order to offset the loss of money. Subsequently as the Treasury Department 17 sent out checks in payments of it's obligations salaries of Federal Employees and 18 benefits payments under various programs. That's the history of Public Law 95-147.
19 The Treasury Department was withdrawing from the state banks and paying the 20 Federal Employees. Does a Federal Employee have a bias or prejudice or direct 21 pecuniary interest when we have an issue with their employer. They are talking about 22 Treasury Tax and Loan Accounts which have a direct pecuniary interest as stated 23 in the Legislative History. A Federal Employee can NOT sit on a jury all those with 24 social security numbers are Federal Employees. The definition of employee is in the 25 Public Law, follow the Public Law from 1935. It does NOT matter what one say's 26 it matters what the Public Law states! Federal employees receive benefit's and can 27 NOT sit on a jury.

¶100. Fact-49. Federal Reserve notes are NOT a dollar they are an OBLIGATION. And that's a debt. Save a million of them THAT ISN'T WHAT YOU OWN THAT'S WHAT YOU OWE. Federal Reserve note is NOT money it's NOT currency it's NOT a note. It is an EMERGENCY DEBT OBLIGATION TO A PARTICULAR CORPORATION, WHICH IS AN ALIEN CORPORATION, OF WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS A VOTING SHARE STOCKHOLDER. They operating on OVER INFLATED VALUE AND CREDIT,

Their paper is used to "destroy"!!!

HISTORICAL AND REVISION NOTES

Based on title 18, U.S.C., 1940 ed., §176 (Mar. 4, 1909, ch. 321, §90, 35 Stat. 1105). Word “employee” was inserted to avoid ambiguity as to scope of section.

Words “ OR of any department OR agency thereof” were added after the words “United States”. (See definitions of the terms “department” and “agency” in section 6 of this title.) Mandatory punishment provisions phrased in alternative.

The smaller punishment for an offense involving $100 OR less was added. (See reviser’s notes under sections 641 and 645 of this title.)

AMENDMENTS

1996—Pub. L. 104-294 substituted “$1,000” for “$100”.

1994—Pub. L. 103-322, §330016(2)(G), substituted “and shall be fined under this title OR in a sum equal to the amount of the money embezzled, whichever is greater, OR imprisoned” for “and shall be fined in a sum equal to the amount of the money embezzled OR imprisoned”. Pub. L. 103-322, §330016(1)(H), substituted “fined under this title” for “fined NOT more than $1,000” after “he shall be”.

Exhibit "Grand Jury"

GRAND JURY, practice. A body of men, consisting of not less than twelve nor more than twenty-four, respectively returned by the sheriff of every county to every session of the peace, over and terminer and general gaol delivery, to whom indictments are preferred. 4 Bl. Com. 302; 1 Chit. C. L. 310, 1.

2. There is just reason to believe that this institution existed among the Saxons, Crabb's C. L. 35. By the constitutions of Clarendon, enacted 10 H. II. A. D. 1164, it is provided, that "if such men were suspected, whom none wished or dared to accuse, the sheriff, being thereto required by the bishop, should swear twelve men of the neighborhood, or village, to declare the truth" respecting such supposed crime; the jurors being summoned as witnesses or accusers, rather than judges. If this institution did not exist before, it seems to be pretty certain that this statute established grand juries, or recognized them, if they existed before. 3. A view of the important duties of grand juries will be taken, by considering, 1. The organization of the grand jury. 2. The extent of its jurisdiction. 3. The mode of doing business. 4. The evidence to be received. 5. Their duty to make presentments. 6. The secrecy to be observed by the grand jury.

4. - 1. Of the organization of the grand jury. The law requires that twenty-four citizens shall be summoned to attend on the grand jury; but in practice, not more than twenty-three are sworn, because of the inconvenience which else might arise, of having twelve, who are sufficient to find a true bill, opposed to twelve others who might be against it. 6 Adolph. & Ell. 236; S. C. 33 e. C. L. R. 66; 2 Caines, R. 98. Upon being called, all who present themselves are sworn, as it scarcely ever happens that all who are summoned are in attendance. The grand jury cannot consist of less than twelve, and from fifteen to twenty are usually sworn. 2 Hale, P. C. 161; 7 Sm. & Marsh. 58. Being called into the jurybox, they are usually permitted to select a foreman whom the court appoints, but the court may exercise the right to nominate one for them. The foreman then takes the following oath or affirmation, namely: "You A B, as foreman of this inquest for the body of the _____ of _____, do swear, (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentments make, of all such articles, matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or otherwise come to your knowledge touching the present service; the commonwealth's counsel, your fellows and your own, you shall keep secret; you shall present no one for envy, hatred or malice; nor shall you leave any one unpresented for fear, favor, affection, hope of reward or gain; but shall present all things truly, as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding, (so help you God.)" It will be perceived that this oath contains the substance of the duties of the grand jury. The

1 foreman having been sworn or affirmed, the other grand jurors are sworn or 2 affirmed according to this formula: "You 'and each of you do swear (or affirm)
3 that the same oath (or affirmation) which your foreman has taken on his part, you
4 and every one of you shall well and truly observe on your part." Being so sworn 5 or affirmed, and having received the charge of the court, the grand jury are 6 organized, and may proceed to the room provided for them to transact the 7 business which may be laid before them. 2 Burr. 1088; Bac. Ab. Juries, A. The 8 grand jury constitute a regular body until discharged by the court, or by operation
9 of law, as where they cannot continue by virtue of an act of assembly beyond a 10 certain day. But although they have been formally discharged by the court, if they 11 have not separated, they may be called back, and fresh bills submitted to them; 9
12 C. & P. 43; S. C. 38 E. C. L. R. 2 8.

13 5. - 2. The extent of the grand jury's jurisdiction. Their jurisdiction is 14 coextensive with that of the court for which they inquire; both as to the offences 15 triable there, and the territory over which such court has jurisdiction.

16 6. - 3. The mode of doing business. The foreman acts as president, and the jury
17 usually appoint one of their number to perform the duties of secretary. No records 18 are to be kept of the acts of the grand jury, except for their own use, because, as 19 will be seen hereafter, their proceedings are to be secret. Being thus prepared to 20 enter upon their duties, the grand jury are supplied with bills of indictment by the 21 attorney-general or other officer, representing the state or commonwealth against 22 offenders. On these bills are endorsed the names of the witnesses by whose 23 testimony they are supported. The witnesses are in attendance in another room, 24 and must be called when wanted. Before they are examined as to their knowledge 25 of the matters mentioned in the indictment, care must be taken that they have 26 been sworn or affirmed. For the sake of convenience, they are generally sworn or 27 affirmed in open court before they are sent to be examined, and when so 28 qualified, a mark to that effect is made opposite their names.

7. In order to save time, the best practice is to find a true bill, as soon as the jury are satisfied that the defendant ought to be put upon his trial. It is a waste of time to examine any other witness after they have arrived at that conclusion. Twelve at least must agree, in order to find a true bill; but it is not required that they should be unanimous. Unless that number consent, the bill must be ignored. When a defendant is to be put upon his trial, the foreman must write on the back of the indictment "a true bill," sign his name as foreman, and date the time of finding.
On the contrary, where there is not sufficient evidence to authorize the finding of the bill, the jury return that they are ignorant whether the person Declarants committed the offence charged in the bill, which is expressed by the foreman endorsing on the bill "ignoramus," signing his name as before, and dating the 1 time.

2 8. - 4. Of the evidence to be received. In order to, ascertain the facts which the 3 jury have not themselves witnessed, they must depend upon the statement of 4 those who know them, and who will testify to them. When the witness, from his 5 position and ability, has been in a condition to know the facts about which he 6 testifies, he is deserving of implicit confidence; if, with such knowledge, he has 7 no motive for telling a false or exaggerated story, has intelligence enough to tell 8 what he knows, and give a probable account of the transaction. If, on the other 9 hand, from his position he could not know the facts, or if knowing them, he 10 distorts them, he is undeserving of credit. The jury are the able judges of the 11 credit and confidence to which a witness is entitled.

12 9. Should any member of the jury be acquainted with any fact on which the grand 13 jury are to act, he must, before he testifies, be sworn or affirmed, as any other 14 witness, for the law requires this sanction in all cases.

15 10. As the jury are not competent to try the Declarants, but merely to investigate 16 the case so far as to ascertain whether he ought to be put on his trial, they cannot 17 hear evidence in his favor; theirs is a mere preliminary inquiry; it is when he 18 comes to be tried in court that he may defend himself by examining witnesses in 19 his favor, and showing the facts of the case.

20 11. - 5. Of presentments. The jury are required to make true presentments of all
21 such matters which may be given to them in charge, or which have otherwise 22 come to their knowledge. A presentment, properly speaking, is the notice taken 23 by the grand jury of any offence from their own knowledge, as of a nuisance, a 24 libel, or the like. In these cases, the authors of the offence should be named, so 25 that they may be indicted,

26 12. - 6. Of the secrecy to be observed by the grand jury. The oath which they 27 have taken obliges them to keep secret the commonwealth's counsel, their fellows 28 and their own. Although contrary to the general spirit of our institutions, which do not shun daylight, this secrecy is required by law for wise purposes. It extends to the votes given in any case, to the evidence delivered by witnesses, and the communications of the jurors to each other; the disclosure of these facts, unless under the sanction of law, would render the imprudent juror who should make them public, liable to punishment. Giving intelligence to a defendant that a bill has been found against him, to enable him to escape, is so obviously wrong, that no one can for a moment doubt its being criminal. The grand juror who should be guilty of this offence might, upon conviction, be fined and imprisoned. The duration of the secrecy appears not to be definitely settled, but it seems this injunction is to remain as long as the particular circumstances of each case require. In a case, for example, where a witness swears to a fact in open

1 court, on the trial, directly in opposition to what he swore before the grand jury,
2 there can be no doubt the injunction of secrecy, as far as regards this evidence,
3 would be at an end, and the grand juror might be sworn to testify what this 4 witness swore to in the grand jury's room, in order that the witness might be 5 prosecuted for perjury. 2 Russ. Cr.. 616; 4 Greenl. Rep. 439; but see contra, 2

"Presentment, Criminal Law"

9 PRESENTMENT, crim. law, practice. The written notice taken by a grand jury 10 of any offence, from their own knowledge or observation, without any bill of 11 indictment laid before them at the suit of the government; 4 Bl. Com. 301; upon 12 such presentment, when 'proper, the officer employed to prosecute, afterwards 13 frames a bill of indictment, which is then sent to the grand jury, and they find it to 14 be a true bill. In an extended sense presentments include not only what is properly
15 so called, but also inquisitions of office, and indictments found by a grand jury. 2 16 Hawk. c. 25, s. 1.

17 2. The difference between a presentment and an inquisition, (Audience: versus) is 18 this, that the former is found by a grand jury authorized to inquire of offences 19 generally, whereas the latter is an accusation found by a jury specially returned to 20 inquire concerning the particular offence. 2 Hawk. c. 25, s. 6. Vide, generally, 23 presented by a grand jury, is also called a presentment. Vide 1 Brock. C. C. R.

Exhibit

Title 5, Part III, Subpart D, Chapter 55, Subchapter III
Section 5520. Withholding State County Income Taxes.

Sec. 5517. Withholding State income taxes

(a) When a State statute -

(1) provides for the collection of a tax either by imposing on employers generally the duty of withholding sums from the pay of employees and making returns of the sums to the State, or by granting to employers generally the authority to withhold sums from the pay of employees if any employee voluntarily elects to have such sums withheld; and

(2) imposes the duty or grants the authority to withhold generally with respect to the pay of employees who are residents of the State; the Secretary of the Treasury, under regulations prescribed by the President, shall enter into an agreement with the State within 120 days of a request for agreement from the proper State official. The agreement shall provide that the head of each agency of the United States shall comply with the requirements of the State withholding statute in the case of employees of the agency who are subject to the tax and whose regular place of Federal employment is within the State with which the agreement is made. In the case pay for service as a member of the armed forces, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting 'who are residents of the State with which the agreement is made' for 'whose regular place of Federal employment is within the State with which the agreement is made'.

(b) This section does not give the consent of the United States to the application of a statute which imposes more burdensome requirements on the United States than on other employers, or which subjects the United States or its employees to a penalty or liability because of this section. An agency of the United States may NOT accept pay from a State for services performed withholding State income taxes from the pay of the employees of the agency.

(c) For the purpose of this section, 'State' means a State or territory or possession of the United States.

(d) For the purpose of this section and sections 5516 and 5520, the terms 'serve as a member of the armed forces' and 'service as a member of the Armed Forces' include -

(1) participation in exercises or the performance of duty under section 502 of title 32, United States Code, by a member of the National Guard; and

1 (2) participation in scheduled drills or training periods, or service on active
2 duty for training, under section 270(a) of title 10, United States Code, by a member
3 of the Ready Reserve.

Exhibit

Title 5, Part III, Subpart D, Chapter 55, Subchapter III
Section 5520. Withholding of City or County Income or Employment Taxes.

Sec. 5520. Withholding of city or county income or employment taxes.

(a) When a city or county ordinance -

(1) provides for the collection of a tax by imposing on employers generally the duty of withholding sums from the pay of employees and making returns of the sums to a designated city or county officer, department, or instrumentality; and

(2) imposes the duty to withhold generally on the payment of compensation earned within the jurisdiction of the city or county in the case of employees whose regular place of employment is within such jurisdiction; the Secretary of the Treasury, under regulations prescribed by the President, shall enter into an agreement with the city or county within 120 days of a request for agreement by the proper city or official. The agreement shall provide that the head of each of the United States shall comply with the requirements of city or county ordinance in the case of any employee of the agency who is subject to the tax and (i) whose regular place of Federal employment is within the jurisdiction of the city or county with which the agreement is made or (ii) is a resident of such city county. The agreement may NOT apply to pay for service as a member of the Armed Forces (other than service described in section 5517(d) of this title). The agreement may NOT permit withholding of a city or county tax from the pay of an employee who is NOT a resident of, or whose regular place of Federal employment is NOT within, the State in which that city or county is located unless the employee consents to the withholding.

(b) This section does NOT give the consent of the United States to the application of an ordinance which imposes more burdensome requirements on the United States than on other employers or which subjects the United States or its employees to a penalty or liability because of this section. An agency of the United States NOT accept pay from a city or county for services performed in withholding city or county income or employment taxes from the pay of employees of the agency.

(c) For the purpose of this section: -

(1) 'city' means any unit of general local government which -

(A) is classified as a municipality by the Bureau of the Census, or

(B) is a town or township which, in the determination of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(i) possesses powers and performs functions comparable to those associated with municipalities,
(ii) is closely settled, and
(iii) contains within its boundaries NO incorporated places, as defined by the Bureau of the Census, within the political boundaries of which 500 or more persons are regularly employed by ALL agencies of the Federal Government;

(2) 'county' means any unit of local general government which is classified as a county by the Bureau of the Census and within the political boundaries of which 500 or more persons are employed by ALL agencies of the Federal Government;

(3) 'ordinance' means an ordinance, order, resolution, or similar instrument which is duly adopted and approved by a city or county in accordance with the constitution and statutes of the State in which it is located and which has the force of law such city or county; and

(4) 'agency' means -

(A) an Executive agency;

(B) the judicial branch; and

(C) the United States Postal Service.

AMENDMENTS

1987 - Subsec. (a). Pub. L. 100-180 inserted '(other than service described in section 5517(d) of this title)' after 'Armed Forces' in penultimate sentence.

1978 - Subsec. (a). Pub. L. 95-365 designated existing provisions as cl. (i), inserted ', or whose regular place of Federal employment is not within,' after 'not a resident of', and added cl. (ii).

1977 - Pub. L. 95-30, Sec. 408(a)(1), inserted 'or county' after 'city' in section catchline.

Subsec. (a). Pub. L. 95-30, Sec. 408(a)(2), (3), substituted 'city or county' for 'city' in introductory provisions preceding par. (1), in par. (2), and in provisions following par. (2), and, in par. (1), substituted 'a designated city or county officer , or instrumentality' for 'the city'.

Subsec. (b). Pub. L. 95-30, Sec. 408(a)(2), substituted 'city or for 'city'.

Subsec. (c). Pub. L. 95-30, Sec. 408(a)(4), (5), added pars. (2) and (3) and redesignated former par. (2) as (4). 1976 - Subsec. (c)(1). Pub. L. 94-358

1 substituted provision defining a city, for purposes of this section, as any unit of 2 general local government which is classified a municipality by the of the Census, or 3 is a town or township which in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury
4 possesses powers and performs functions comparable to those associated with 5 municipalities, is closely settled, and contains within its boundaries no incorporated
6 places, as defined by the Bureau of the Census, within the boundaries of which five 7 hundred or more persons are regularly employed by ALL agencies of the Federal 8 Government, for provision defining a city, for purposes of this section, as a city 9 which is duly incorporated under the laws of a State and within the political 10 boundaries of which five hundred or more persons are regularly employed by ALL 11 agencies of the Federal Government.

12 EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1978 AMENDMENT

13 Section 2 of Pub. L. 95-365 provided that: 'The amendments made by the first 14 section of this Act (amending this section) shall take effect on the 90th day after the 15 date of the enactment of this Act (Sept. 15, 1978).'

16 EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1977 AMENDMENT

17 Section 408(c) of Pub. L. 95-30 provided that: 'The amendments made by this 18 section (amending this section) shall take effect on the date of enactment of this 19 Act (May 23, 1977).'

20 EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1976 AMENDMENT

21 Section 2 of Pub. L. 94-358 provided that: 'The amendment made by the first 22 section of this Act (amending this section) shall take effect on the date of the 23 enactment of this Act (July 12, 1976).'

24 EFFECTIVE DATE

25 Section 3 of Pub. L. 93-340 provided that: 'This section shall become effective on 26 the date of enactment of this Act (July 10, 1974). The provisions of the first section 27 and section 2 of this Act (enacting this section and amending section 410 of Title 28 39, Postal Service) shall become effective on the ninetieth day the date of enactment.'

5 DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, STATE, CITY AND COUNTY INCOME OR
6 EMPLOYMENT TAXES Ex. Ord. No. 11997, June 22, 1977, 42 F.R. 31759,
7 provided: By virtue of the authority vested in me by Sections 5516, 5517 and 5520
8 of Title 5 of the United States Code, and Section 301 of Title 3 of the United States 9 Code, and as President of the United States of America, in order to authorize the 10 Secretary of the Treasury to provide for the withholding of county income or taxes
11 as authorized by Section 5520 of Title 5 of the States Code as amended by Section 12 408 of Public Law 95-30, as well as to provide for the withholding of District of 13 Columbia, and city income or employment taxes, it is hereby ordered as follows:

14 Section 1. Whenever the Secretary of the Treasury enters into an agreement 15 pursuant to Sections 5516, 5517 or 5520 of Title 5 of the United States Code, with 16 the District of Columbia, a State, a city or a county, as the case may be, with regard 17 to the withholding, by agency of the United States, hereinafter referred to as 18 agency, of income or employment taxes from the pay of Federal employees or 19 members of the Armed Forces, the Secretary of the Treasury shall ensure that each 20 agreement is consistent with those sections and regulations, including this Order, 21 issued thereunder.

22 Sec. 2. Each agreement shall provide (a) when tax withholding shall begin, (b) that 23 the head of an agency may rely on the withholding certificate of an employee or a 24 member of the Armed Forces in withholding taxes, (c) that the method for 25 calculating the amount to be withheld for District of Columbia, State, city or 26 income or employment taxes shall produce approximately the required to be 27 withheld by the District of Columbia or State; or city or county ordinance, 28 whichever is applicable, and (d) that procedures for the withholding, filing of returns, and payment of the withheld taxes to the District of Columbia, a State, a city or a county shall conform to the usual fiscal practices of agencies. Any agreement affecting members of the Armed Forces shall also provide that the head of an agency may rely on the certificate of legal residence of a member of the Armed Forces in determining his or her residence for tax withholding purposes.
NO agreement shall require the collection by an agency of delinquent liabilities of an employee or a member of the Armed Forces.

Sec. 3. The head of each agency shall designate, or provide for designation of, the officers or employees whose duty it shall be to withhold taxes, file required returns, and direct payment of taxes withheld, in accordance with this Order, any regulations by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the new applicable agreement.

1 Sec. 4. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe additional 2 regulations to implement Sections 5516, 5517 and 5520 of Title 5 of the United 3 States Code, and this Order. Sec. 5. Executive Order No. 11968 of January 31, 4 1977, is hereby revoked. However, all actions heretofore taken by the President or 5 his delegates in respect of the matters affected by this Order and in force at the time
6 of the issuance of this Order, including any regulations prescribed or approved by 7 the President or his delegates in respect of such matters and any existing 8 agreements approved by his delegates, shall, except as they may be inconsistent 9 with the provisions of this Order, remain in effect until amended, modified, or 10 revoked pursuant to the authority conferred by this Order, unless sooner terminated 11 by operation of law.

1 Yavapai County Adult Probation Department Implementation of Conditions of Probation

3 Defendant: Michael Willis Chase Cause Number: CR201980661

4 In accordance with the Conditions of Probation granted by the Court in the above cause and the provisions of Rule 27.1 of the Arizona
5 Rules of Criminal Procedure, the following regulations are deemed necessary to implement the conditions imposed by the Court, and 6 are not inconsistent with them.

7 Standard Condition of Probation #6: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to report in person
8 to the Yavapai County Adult Probation Department office, located at 411 South 14th Street in Cottonwood, Arizona, 9 on the first Wednesday of every month at 2:30PM, effective immediately. If your office day falls on a state holiday, you 10 must report on the following Wednesday.

11 Standard Condition of Probation #7: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to keep your 12 probation officer updated with the location you currently reside and sleep at, by drawing a map of the area and mailing
13 it to: Tai Davis, 411 South 14th Street, Cottonwood, Arizona, 86326. The map must be detailed enough that the average 14 person, familiar with the Verde Valley, could easily find it. You must mail your probation officer a new map within 72 15 hours of moving to a new location.

16 Standard Condition of Probation #11: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to be screened
17 by Spectrum Healthcare, located at 8 East Cottonwood Street, in Cottonwood, Arizona, for placement into a treatment
18 program, no later than May 6, 2022. It is your sole responsibility to attend all sessions recommended by Spectrum 19 Healthcare. At your screening appointment, you must request and then sign a Release of Information that allows 20 Spectrum Healthcare and Yavapai County Probation to exchange confidential information about your treatment.

21 Standard Condition of Probation #12: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to start drug
22 screenings at Averhealth, effective immediately. You must call (928) 399-4099 every day to find out if you are 23 scheduled to test. Your unique seven-digit PIN is 3372171. Averhealth's automated telephone system will inform you 24 whether you are required to test that day. If instructed to test, you must report to 1423 East State Route 89A, 25 Cottonwood, Arizona, between the hours of 11:00am and 6:30pm. It is your responsibility to pay for each drug 26 screening.

27 Standard Condition of Probation #15: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to make a court 28 payment of $75.00 each month beginning April 11, 2022. You must mail a cashier's check or money order with your case number written on it to: Criminal Payments, Clerk of the Superior Court, 120 South Cortez Street, Prescott, Arizona, 86303.

Standard Condition of Probation #22: You are hereby directed in writing by your probation officer, to submit to fingerprinting at the Yavapai County Jail, located at 2830 North Commonwealth Drive, Camp Verde, Arizona, no later than May 6, 2022.

Note: By signing this form you acknowledge that you have been advised of your responsibilities to fulfill your conditions of probation.
Failure to comply with any of the above directives may result in the Court being notified of your noncompliance.

- 28 • Defendant states he is a "denizen," or free inhabitant, and is not under the authority of the State of Arizona or the Adult Probation Department.
• A risk assessment has not been completed due to the defendant's uncooperative attitude, and he will not sign intake paperwork.
• The defendant makes the simplest tasks as difficult as possible and has caused disturbances at the Court Clerk's Office, Spectrum Healthcare, and Averhealth.
• Without the defendant's cooperation, community supervision has little chance of success.
• It is therefore, respectfully recommended, that the defendant be given a terminal jail sentence.

Debtors' Prisons

Body #2

¶26. Congress outlawed Debtors' Prisons. Declarant will NOT fail to PAY monthly fees mailed to Declarant by a private probation company, called Yavapai County Adult Probation Department. Declarant is on probation because of a conviction signed by John D. Napper. In Yavapai County, Arizona, many of those in jail are there because they own fines and fees, who have been imprisoned because they are indigent debtors.

¶27. Fact, Arizona's tradition of debtors' imprisonment is alive and well. This Declarant how can this be? Jailing the indigent for their failure to meet contractual obligations was considered primitive by ancient Greek and Roman politicians, and remains illegal and unheard of in most developed countries, Under the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, the practice is listed as a civil-rights violation.

¶28. From the Library of Congress quote, "In the United States, debtors' prisons were banned under federal law in 1833. A century and a half later, in 1983, the Supreme Court affirmed that incarcerating indigent debtors was unconstitutional under the Fourteenth Amendment's Equal Protection clause. Yet, citizens of the United States, who are subjects slaves are, to this day, routinely jailed after failing to repay debt. Though de jure debtors' prisons are a thing of the past, de facto debtors' imprisonment is NOT. So what do we really know about modern-day debtors' imprisonment – how it returned, when, and where? Below, are seven frequently answers about the history and abolition of debtors' imprisonment, and its "Under-The-Radar" second act," unquote.

¶29. First, "Under-The-Radar" Debtor's imprisonment went largely unnoticed until after the financial crisis of 2008, when investigative reporting in the Minneapolis Star Tribune and elsewhere began to expose the trend. So, just what is debtors' prison? A debtors' prison is any prison, jail, or other detention facility in which people are incarcerated for their inability, refusal, or failure to PAY debt.

1 ¶30. Second, what is the history of debtors' prisons in the United States? From the 2 late 1600s to the early 1800s many cities and states operated actual "debtors' prisons," 3 brick-and-mortar facilities that were designed explicitly and exclusively for jailing
4 negligent borrowers – some of whom owed NO more than 60 cents. These dungeons, 5 such as Walnut Street Debtors' Prison in Philadelphia and the New Gaol in downtown
6 Manhattan, were modeled after debtors' prisons in London, like the "Clink" (the origin 7 of the expression "in the clink").

8 ¶31. Fact, third, For a more in-depth, historical look at the country's treatment of 9 debtors, read Jill Lepore's reporting in the New Yorker. Imprisonment for indebtedness 10 was common place. Two signatories of the Declaration of Independence, James Wilson, 11 an associate justice of the Supreme Court, and Robert Morris, a close friend of George 12 Washington's, spent time in jail after neglecting loans.

13 ¶32. Forth, but for those without friends in high places, debtors' imprisonment could 14 turn into a life sentence. In many jurisdictions, debtors were NOT freed until they 15 acquired outside funds to PAY what they owed, or else worked off the debt through 16 years of PENAL LABOR. As a result, many languished in prison – and died there – for 17 the crime of their indigence.

18 ¶33. Fifth, but "debtors prisons" was outlawed, right? Yes, technically. After the War
19 of 1812, a costly stalemate, more and more Americans were holding debt, and the notion 20 of imprisoning all these debtors seemed increasingly "feudal." Moreover, America was 21 seen as a country of immigrants, and many European immigrants had come here to 22 escape debt. So, in 1833, Congress abolished the practice under federal law. Between 23 1821 and 1849, twelve states followed suit. Meanwhile, with the advent of bankruptcy 24 law, "We The People" were given a way out of insurmountable debt, and creditors were 25 made to share some of the risk inherent in a loan transaction. Legislation passed in 26 1841, 1867, and 1898 replacing a system that criminalized bankruptcy with one

1 designed to resolve as much debt as the debtor could afford, while absolving the
2 remainder. During the 20th century, on three separate occasions, the Supreme Court
3 affirmed the unconstitutionality of incarcerating those too poor to repay debt. In 1970, in 4 Williams versus Illinois, the high court decided that a maximum prison term could NOT
5 be extended because the defendant failed to pay court costs or fines. A year later, in Tate
6 versus Short, the justices ruled that a defendant may NOT be jailed solely because he or 7 she is too indigent to PAY a fine. Most importantly, the 1983 decision in Bearden versus
8 Georgia compelled local judges to distinguish between debtors who are too poor to PAY 9 and those who have the financial ability but “willfully” refuse to do so.

10 11 When And Why Did The Courts Revert To Jailing Debtors?

14 ¶34. Sixth, experts say that the trend, though ongoing, coincided with the rise of “mass 15 incarceration.” Alec Karakatsan is, a lawyer who last year brought one of the only 16 lawsuits to successfully challenge a local court system for jailing indigent debtors, says 17 that the first step was the normalization of incarceration.

19 “In the 1970s and 1980s,” he says, “we started to imprison more people 20 for lesser crimes. In the process, we were lowering our standards for what 21 constituted an offense deserving of imprisonment, and, more broadly, we 22 were losing our sense of how serious, how truly serious, it is to 23 incarcerate. If we can imprison for possession of marijuana, why can’t we 24 imprison for NOT paying back a loan?”

25 ¶35. As a result of the greater reliance on incarceration, says Karin Martin, a professor 26 at John Jay College and an expert on “criminal justice financial obligations,” there was
28

1 a dramatic increase in the number of statutes, penal statutes, listing a prison term as a 2 possible sentence for failure to repay “Criminal-Justice Debts”

3 ¶36. CRIMINAL-JUSTICE DEBT<sup>3</sup> For an accounting of state-by-state court fees, see 4 NPR’s series “Guilty and Charged.”

5 “In the late 80s and early 90s,” Karin Martin says, “there was a major 6 uptick in the number of rules, at the state level but also in the counties,
7 indicating jail time for failure to pay various fines and fees.”

8 ¶37. Next came the fiscal crisis of the 2000s, during which many states were 9 contending with budget deficits and looking for ways to save<sup>4</sup> Many judges, including J.
10 Scott Vowell, a circuit court judge in Alabama, felt pressured to make their courts 11 financially self-sufficient, by using the threat of jail time – established in those penal 12 statutes – to squeeze cash out of small-time debtors.

14 <sup>4</sup> See LOOKING FOR WAYS TO SAVE According to CBS MoneyWatch
15 and the ACLU, the cost to taxpayers of arresting and incarcerating a debtor 16 is generally more than the amount to be gained by collecting the debt.

17 The “Private Probation Companies Market

18 ¶38. Finally, in only the last several years, the birth of a new brand of “offender-19 funded” justice has created a market for private probation companies. Purporting to 20 save taxpayer dollars, these outfits force the offenders themselves to foot the bill for 21 parole, reentry, drug rehab, electronic monitoring, and other services (some of which 22 are NOT even assigned by a judge by “Court Order”). When the offenders can’t PAY for 23 all of this, they may be jailed – even if they have already served their time for the 24 offense.

25 What Are Some Types Of Debt That “We The People”
26 Are Sent To Jail For NOT PAYING? Understanding “Private Debt”
27 And “Criminal-Justice Debt!!!”

¶39. There are two types: “Private Debt”, which may lead to involvement in the criminal justice system, and “Criminal-Justice Debt”, accrued through involvement in the criminal justice system.

¶40. In the “Private Debt” category are credit card debt, unpaid medical bills and car payments, and payday loans and other high-interest, short-term cash advances, which indigent borrowers rely on but struggle to repay. In these cases, the creditor – a predatory lender, a landlord, or a utility provider – OR a debt collector (hired by the creditor) may bypass bankruptcy court and take the debtor straight to civil court. If the debtor fails to show up, or if the judge deems that the debtor is “willfully” NOT PAYING the debt, the judge may write a warrant for the debtor’s arrest on a charge of “contempt of court.” The debtor is then held in jail until he or she posts bond OR pays the debt, in a process known as “pay or stay.”

¶41. The “Criminal-Justice Debt” category, is also termed “criminal justice financial obligations,” actually consists of three sub-categories: fines, i.e. monetary penalties imposed as a condition of a sentence, including, say, a traffic ticket; fees, which may include jail book-in fees, Bail investigation fees, public defender application fees, drug testing fees, DNA testing fees, jail per diems for pretrial detention, court costs, felony surcharges, public defender recoupment fees, and on and on and on; and restitution, made to the victim or victims for personal OR property damage. Also in this category are costs of imprisonment (billed to inmates in 41 states), and of parole and probation (44 states).

BAIL INVESTIGATION FEES <sup>5</sup> For more on bail, see The Marshall Project’s Alysia Santo’s reporting on the future of the industry.

¶42. If an offender OR ex-offender fails to PAY any of this debt, the court will outsource the debt to a private debt collector, and the process of taking the debtor to court, described above, begins all over again.

I'm Confused, Is This A "Civil" Or A "Criminal Matter"?
Is This Debt "Private" Or "Public"?

¶43. That's confusing for debtors, too. For indigent people, a "civil proceeding" regarding "private debt" – say, an unpaid payday loan – may have "criminal ramifications"; conversely, involvement in a criminal case may "create debt", causing a new "civil proceeding".

¶44. According to Karin Martin, this ambiguity has "grave consequences". For one, indigent debtors DO NOT know whom to negotiate with – the DMV, which mailed the speeding ticket, OR the debt collector that now seems to be pursuing the matter. Also, "criminal-justice debt" affects "private creditworthiness" and eligibility for a driver's license, making it harder to get a job, get a home, get a loan, OR otherwise find a way to avoid jail, REPAY the debt and regain solid economic footing.

¶45. Most importantly, explains John Pollock, the coordinator of the National Coalition for a Civil Right to Counsel, indigent defendants have a right to counsel in criminal cases, but NOT in civil ones. Yet, as noted, they may be jailed for failing to show up at a civil hearing OR for NOT resolving civil debt. In other words, poor people with debt face criminal consequences but without the Constitutional protections afforded to criminal defendants.

If Debtors' Imprisonment Is Unconstitutional,
Why Does It Happen?

¶46. It happens for two reasons. The first is that judges may incarcerate debtors who fail to show up at debt-related proceedings.

¶47. In these cases, the crime is not failure to pay, but rather "failing to appear in court," "disobeying a court order," or "contempt of court."

¶48. The second is that the Supreme Court, in the 1983 decision in Bearden versus Georgia, DID NOT define two key terms: "indigent" and "willful." How are judges

1 supposed to decide whether a debtor is “indigent” OR, rather, is “willfully” refusing to 2 PAY?

3 ¶49. By leaving this mens rea determination to individual judges, rather than providing 4 bright-line criteria as to how to make the distinction, the justices left open the possibility 5 that a local judge with high standards for “indigence” could circumvent the spirit of 6 Bearden and send a very, very poor debtor to jail or prison.

7 ¶50. In practice, different judges have different criteria for deciphering whether a debtor
8 is “indigent.” Some judges will determine how much money a debtor has by having him 9 or her complete an interview or a short questionnaire. Some judges will rule that the 10 debtor is NOT “legitimately” indigent and is, instead, “willfully” neglecting the debt –
11 because the debtor showed up to the courtroom wearing a flashy jacket or expensive 12 tattoos.

13 ¶51. And other judges will consider all nonpayment to be “willful,” unless OR until the 14 debtor can prove that he or she has exhausted absolutely all other sources of income –
15 by quitting smoking, collecting and returning used soda cans and bottles, and asking 16 family and friends for loans.

17 The Principal In The Courts State And Federal And All Agencies
18 Is “The Fund” And “The Bank”

4 be misrepresenting and defrauding the court, the jury and ALL defendants. Why?
5 Because the courts will NOT disclose who the "Real Party In Interest" is, the courts
6 NEVER disclose the true nature and accusation against defendants.

12 Understand The Concept Of The "Alter Ego"
13 From The Law Dictionary.

14 The Doctrine of "Corporate Alter Ego"

15 Sometimes people want to hide, they need curtains to hide behind, to 16 disguise, or obscure their true identity their true character their true morality.
17 So, they want to hide certain behavior it's like wearing a veil or a disguise.
18 Masking one's behavior behind a corporate agent or "corporate veil" is very 19 common. It's like hide-and-seek or hide-and-go-seek; In the corporate world it's the game in which one player (a principle) hides from the others "third parties", putting on the "corporate veil" of secrecy, or going into hiding from 20 6 Exaction. The wrongful act of an officer or other person in compelling payment of a fee or reward

21 for his services, under color of his official authority, where no payment is due. See also Extortion.

22 Black's Law Dictionary 5th edition page 500.

23 Exactor. In the civil law, a gatherer or receiver of money, a collector of taxes, In old English law, a 24 collector of the public moneys; a tax gatherer. Thus, exactor regis was the name of the King's tax 25 collector, who took up the taxes and other debts due the treasury. Black's Law Dictionary 5th edition
26 page 500.

1 their criminal behavior, or keeping themselves out of sight or isolating "risky"
2 behavior from personal liability through an agent their "corporate veil".

3 The corporate veil is removed and one is personally liable when there is 4 "fraud" or "self-dealing". It's a transaction wherein somebody who is given 5 the legal authority to manage money or property, supposedly, on behalf of 6 somebody else is really acting for himself and also as "trustee." A "trust" 7 relationship which demands strict "fidelity" to others. "Self-dealing" seeks to 8 consummate a deal wherein "self-interest" is opposed to "duty." More than 9 not "duty," demanding "strict fidelity," is in action and deed "self-help" which 10 is taking action in person (as a principle) for that legal person (corporate 11 agent) or by a representative with legal consequences, whether the action is 12 legal or not. "Self-helping for yourself" would be receiving money as a 13 director of a corporation in violation of the rule that the law raises that neither 14 party may exert influence or pressure upon the other, take selfish advantage of 15 his trust, or deal with the subject matter of the corporation in such a way as to 16 benefit himself or prejudice the other except in the exercise of the utmost 17 "good faith" and with the "full knowledge" and "consent" of that other, using 18 business shrewdness, hard bargaining, and astuteness to take advantage of the 19 forgetfulness or negligence of another being totally prohibited as between 20 persons standing in such a relation to each other. A fiduciary relationship 21 exists between a principle and agent.

22 "Alter Ego Doctrine"

23 Alter ego is "Second Self". Under the doctrine of "alter ego", the courts 24 merely disregards the corporate entity and holds individual(s) responsible for 25 acts knowingly and intentionally done in the name of corporation. See Ivy 26 versus Plyler, 246 Cal. App.2d 678, 54 Cal.Rptr. 894, 897.

27 To establish the "alter ego" doctrine, it must be shown that the stockholders 28 disregarded the entity of the corporation, made the corporation a mere conduit for the transaction of their own private business, and that the separate individualities of the corporation and its stockholders in fact ceased to exist.
See Sefton versus San Diego Trust & Savings Bank, Cal.App., 106 P.2d 974, 984.

The doctrine of "alter ego" does not create assets for or in a corporation, but it simply fastens liability on the individual(s), those, who uses the corporation merely as an instrumentality in conducting their own personal business, AND THAT LIABILITY SPRINGS FROM FRAUD PERPETRATED NOT ON THE CORPORATION, BUT ON THIRD PERSONS DEALING WITH THE CORPORATION. See
Garvin versus Matthews, 193 Wash. 152, 74P.2d 990, 992.

¶55. Fact-4. "The Bank" and "The Fund" are the principals the United States and the several states are alter egos of the <sup>7</sup> instrumentality the <sup>8</sup> foreign principal exacting corporate notes and obligations in private characters. ALL "citizens of the United States" are the collateral on corporate notes and obligations.

7 The "Instrumentality Rule."

An instrument is something or somebody USED as a means of achieving a desired result or accomplishing a particular purpose. Corporations can be used for a purpose or it could be the means by which something is done. Someone could actually play a corporation like one plays a musical instrument. In such a case the corporation or corporation's actions or the USE OF THEM is USED to get something done. Corporation can be USED to exploit or manipulate. In such a case the legal purpose of the corporation was not clearly remembered, understood, nor thought out. If it is clearly remembered, understood and thought out and used to exploit or manipulate it's criminal; it's fraudulent.

The "Instrumentality Rule" or "Alter Ego" rule states that when a corporation is so dominated by another corporation or persons that the subservient corporation becomes a mere instrument and is really indistinct from controlling corporation or controlling persons, then the corporate veil of dominated corporation will be disregarded, if to retain its results in injustice. See National Bond Finance Co. versus General Motors Corp., D.C.Mo., 238 F. Supp. 248, 255.

Under this rule, corporate existence will be disregarded where a corporation (subsidiary) is so organized and controlled and its affairs so conducted as to made it only an adjunct and instrumentality of another corporation (parent corporation) or persons, and parent corporation or persons will be responsible for the obligations of its subsidiary. See Taylor versus Standard Gas & Electric Co., C.C.A.Okl., 96 F. 2d 693, 704.

Federal Employees Are Tax Collectors Tax And Loan Accounts

¶56. Fact-5. Anyone with a Social Security Number is a federal employee and a tax collector, who CANNOT hold a State Office.

¶57. Fact-6. Once the former Sovereigns entered into these organizations then they operate under and according to it's charter. It's liable to them under the public policy. A corporation has NO rights. It has NO rights it has privileges by it's charter but it has NO inalienable rights. It's an artificial entity and any privileges it has, has to come by statute and by its charter and that only. And so, when you deal with an artificial entity you deal according to its charter. It actually only has privileges. It actually DOES NOT have a right to due process per se. IT IS PURELY ADMINISTRATIVE, operating seizures. And ALL these "citizens of the United States", who signed up, for these wonderful little benefits and entitlements like Social Security and Federal Tax Numbers BECAME TAX <sup>9</sup> COLLECTORS. And when the tax collector has a DUE OWING they can come in and seize him and his property. So, what Congress in Washington D.C. and the boys did is they went outside the country went out on the ocean and formed an international organization brought it back in and placed it in N.Y., N.Y. and then claim that it was sovereign over all the law and the Constitutions of the United States and for the several states and then just went about doing what they were told NOT to do, which was violate Article 1 Section 10: No state shall ....

¶58. Fact-7. When you want to deal in these corporations you deal in INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE. what you end up with is if you go back and check a lot of these INTERSTATE and INTERNATIONAL CORPORATIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS to see if they have a <sup>11</sup> CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY TO DO BUSINESS IN THE STATE THEY DON'T HAVE ONE. It's not on file in the Secretary of State's Office. Most states have laws and have retained the right to preclude them [interstate and international corporations] from commencing or maintaining an action in the state courts for failure to obtain that certificate of authority banks included. They have to file their corporate charter with the Secretary of State's Office to obtain the <sup>12</sup> certificate of incorporation by the state. They have to have a registered agent a registered office upon which service of process can be had. Fact, government cannot confer the power that "We The People" delegated to the

the obligation to which the tender relates.

(c) If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment stated in the instrument, the obligor is deemed to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

11 Certificate of authority. Document issued by state corporations authority (e.g. "Secretary of State) on application of foreign corporation granting such corporation right to do business in state.

12 Certificate of incorporation. The basic instrument by which a corporation is formed (termed "articles of incorporation" in most states), under general corporation statutes, executed by several persons as incorporators and filed in some designated public office (e.g. Secretary of State) as evidence of corporate existence. Upon filing of such, corporate existence usually begins. This is properly distinguished from a "charter," which is a direct legislative grant of corporate existence and powers to named individuals. 10 Pecuniary. That which relates to money.

11 2. Pecuniary punishment, is one which imposes a fine on a convict; a pecuniary legacy is one 12 which entitles the legatee to receive a sum of money, and not a specific chattel. In the ecclesiastical 13 law, by pecuniary causes is understood such causes as arise either from the withholding 14 ecclesiastical dues, or the doing or omitting such acts relating to the church, in consequence of 15 which damage accrues to the plaintiff. In England these causes are cognizable in the ecclesiastical 16 courts. Bouviere's Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

18 14 Subject-matter. The subject, or matter presented for consideration; the thin in dispute; the right 19 which one party claims as against the other, as the right to divorce; of ejectment; to recover money;
20 to have foreclosure. Nature of cause of action, and of relief sought. In trusts, the res or the things

8 Jurisdiction of the subject matter. Power of a particular court to hear the type of case that is then

10 Ferree versus Ferree, 285 Ky. 825, 149 S.W.2d 719, 721; jurisdiction over the nature of cause of 11 action and relief sought, Mid-City Bank & Trust Co. versus Myers, 343 Pa. 465, 23 A.2d 420, 423;
12 or the amount for which a court of limited jurisdiction is authorized to enter judgment.

14 A court is without authority to adjudicate a matter over which it has no jurisdiction even though the 15 court possesses jurisdiction over the parties to the litigation; e.g. a court of limited criminal 16 jurisdiction has no power to try a murder indictment and its judgment therein would be void and of 17 no effect because it lacks subject matter jurisdiction. Blacks Law Dictionary 6th edition.

18 Subject-Matter. The cause, the object, the thing in dispute.

19 2. It is a fatal objection to the jurisdiction of the court when it has not cognizance of the subject-matter 20 of the action; as, if a cause exclusively of admiralty jurisdiction were brought in a court of 21 common law, or a criminal proceeding in a court having jurisdiction of civil cases only. In such 22 case, neither a plea to the jurisdiction, nor any other plea would be required to oust the court of 23 jurisdiction. The cause might be dismissed upon motion, by the court, ex officio. Bouviere's Law justice of the peace.

U.S. (Federal Magistrates. A judicial officer, appointed by judges of federal district courts, having many but not all of the powers of a judge. 28 U.S.C.A. sections 631-639. Generally exercising duties formerly performed by U.S. Commissioners, magistrates may be designated to hear a wide variety of motions and other pretrial matters in both criminal and civil cases. With the consent of the parties, they may conduct civil or misdemeanor criminal trials. However, magistrates may not preside over felony trials or over jury selection in felony cases.

For Chief magistrate; Committing magistrate; Police magistrate; and Stipendiary magistrates, see those titles. Blacks Law Dictionary 6th edition.

Magistracy, municipal law. In its most enlarged signification, this term includes all officers, legislative, executive, and judicial. For example, in most of the state constitutions will be found this provision; "the powers of the government are divided into three distinct departments, and each of these is confided to a separate magistracy, to wit: those which are legislative, to one; those which are executive, to another; and those which are judiciary, to another." In a more confined sense, it signifies the body of officers whose duty it is to put the laws in force; as, judges, justices of the peace, and the like. In a still narrower sense it is employed to designate the body of justices of peace. It is also used for the office of a magistrate.

Magistrate, municipal law. A public civil officer, invested with some part of the legislative, executive, or judicial power given by the constitution. In a narrower sense this term includes only inferior judicial officers, as justices of the peace.

2. The president of the United States is the chief magistrate of this nation; the governors are the chief magistrates of their respective states.

functions of his office, when required by law, is a misdemeanor. Bouviers Law Dictionary 1856 edition.

Judge. A public officer, lawfully appointed to decide litigated questions according to law. This, in its most extensive sense, includes all officers who are appointed to decide such questions, and not only judges properly so called, but also justices of the peace, and jurors, who are judges of the facts in issue. See 4 Dall. 229; 3 Yeates, IR. 300. In a more limited sense, the term judge signifies an officer who is so named in his commission, and who presides in some court.

2. Judges are appointed or elected, in a variety of ways, in the United States they are appointed by the president, by and with the consent of the senate; in some of the states they are appointed by the governor, the governor and senate, or by the legislature. In the United States, and some of the states, they hold their offices during good behaviour; in others, as in New York, during, good behaviour, or until they shall attain a certain age and in others for a limited term of years.

3. Impartiality is the first duty of a judge; before he gives an opinion, or sits in judgment in a cause, he ought to be certain that he has no bias for or against either of the parties; and if he has any (the slightest) interest in the cause, he is disqualified from sitting as judge; aliquis non debet esse judex in propria causa; and when he is aware of such interest, he ought himself to refuse to sit on the case. It seems it is discretionary with him whether he will sit in a cause in which he has been of counsel. But the delicacy which characterizes the judges in this country, generally, forbids their sitting in such a cause.

4. He must not only be impartial, but he must follow and enforce the law, whether good or bad. He is bound to declare what the law is, and not to make it; he is not an arbitrator, but an interpreter of the law. It is his duty to be patient in the investigation of the case, careful in considering it, and firm in his judgment. He ought, according to Cicero, "never to lose sight that he is a man, and that he cannot exceed the power given him by his commission; that not only power, but public confidence has been given to him; that he ought always seriously to attend not to his wishes but to the requisitions of law, of justice and religion." Cic. pro. Cluentius. A curious case of judicial casuistry is stated by Aulus Gellius Att. Noct. lib: 14, cap. 2, which may be interesting to the reader.

5. While acting within the bounds of his jurisdiction, the judge is not responsible for any error of judgment, nor mistake he may commit as a judge. When he acts corruptly, he may be impeached.

Securities Acts. Federal and state statutes governing the registration, offering, sale, etc. of securities. Major federal acts include the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (q.v.). Such federal acts are administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The majority of the states have adopted the Uniform Securities Act. See Registration of securities. Blacks Law Dictionary 6th edition.

3 reputation. Whenever the illegality appears, whether the evidence comes from one side
4 or the other, the disclosure is fatal to the case. No consent of the defendant can 5 neutralize it's affect. A stipulation in a most solemn form to waive the objection would

¶105. Fact-3. The inferiority of kangaroo courts and agencies refers to the issue of structure and quality. These courts are considered to be structurally subordinate to traditional courts and likely to generate substandard adjudicative outcomes. The informal nature of kangaroo courts and agencies refers to the fact that they operate unofficially (that is, outside the purview of the traditional legal system) OR in a manner that is quite casual (that is, with less intention or deliberation). Finally, and relatedly, kangaroo courts and agency hearings are inequitable. Their reduced

29 What does "Wreak Havoc" mean? To create confusion and inflict destruction. Havoc, which comes from the medieval word for "plunder," was once a specific command for invading troops to begin looting and killing in a conquered village. This is what Shakespeare meant by his oft-quoted "Cry 'havoc' and let slip the dogs of war" (Julius Caesar, 3.1).

- 9 3. A sham legal proceeding.”<sup>14</sup>

10 ¶4. Fact-4. These definitions also capture the three features of inferiority, 11 informality, and inequity. The online supplement to Black's Law Dictionary goes into 12 more relevant detail.

13 “As a general rule,” it explains, a kangaroo court “is any proceeding that 14 attempts to imitate a fair trial OR hearing without the usual due process
15 safeguards” since such “[c]onstitutional safeguards would stand in the way 16 of a kangaroo court reaching its predetermined result.”

17 ¶5. Fact-5. The designation has a generally negative connotation. The 18 supplement notes that

19 “[r]eferring to something as a kangaroo court usually carries with it a 20 negative inference because of the manner in which they are conducted.”

21 “The term’s origin is uncertain, but it appears to be an Americanism. It has 22 been traced to 1853 in the American West. ‘Kangaroo’ might refer to the illogical leaps between ‘facts’ and conclusions, OR to the hapless defendant’s quick bounce from court to gallows.”).

23 Kangaroo Courts “Acts of Justice” Are A Quick Bounce From 24 The Kangaroo Proceedings To The Gallows!!!

1 ¶106. Fact-5. The definition found in West's Encyclopedia of American Law also 2 corresponds with features of kangaroo courts (which include agency tribunals) Declarant
3 describe above. It defines the term as meaning

4 "a proceeding and its leaders who are considered sham, corrupt, and 5 without regard for the law."

6 ¶107. Fact-6. In ways that are relevant to the revenue-seeking court judges at the center
7 of the Ferguson debacle, the encyclopedia also notes that the term can be traced to the 8 "roving judges" of the U.S. frontier who were

9 "paid on the basis of how many trials they conducted, and in some instances 10 their salary depended on the fines from the defendants they convicted."

11 ¶108. Fact-7. The term, West's Encyclopedia of American Law explains, 12

13 "comes from the image of these judges hopping from place to place, guided 14 less by concern for justice than by the desire to wrap up as many trials as 15 the day allowed."

16 ¶109. Fact-8. This interpretation, which gestures toward the unofficial nature of these 17 courts (which include agency tribunals), emphasizes their informality. Collins describes 18 a kangaroo court as

19 "any tribunal in which judgment is rendered arbitrarily OR unfairly"

20 ¶110. Fact-9. This interpretation that points directly to the inequitable results that these 21 courts can and do produce. Declarant's point here is NOT that ALL courts and agency
22 tribunals are consistent with every definition of kangaroo courts, but that they entail 23 many features that have been attributed to kangaroo courts and make the application of 24 this metaphor plausible.

25 Kangaroo Courts Are Also Known As:

1 'Kangaroo Ass Courts,' 'Kangaroo Style Courts,' 'Kangaroo
2 Courtrooms,' 'Kangaroo Justice,' 'Kangaroo Form of Justice,' 3 'Kangaroo Proceedings,' 'Kangaroo-Like Proceedings,' 'Kangaroo
4 Processes,' 'Kangaroo Type Court Processes,' 'Kangaroo Hearings,'
5 'Kangaroo Trials,' "Kangaroo" Disciplinary Proceedings,' 'Kangaroo
6 Kind of a Deal,' and 'Summary Kangaroo Practices.'

7 ¶111. Fact-10. Some define kangaroo courts and agency tribunals as either

8 "a dispute resolution forum in which either the outcome is largely 9 shaped in advance because of biases of the decision-maker" OR "a 10 forum in which the structure and operation of the forum result in an 11 inferior brand of adjudication."

12 ¶112. Fact-11. Others state how litigants and judges have used the term "kangaroo 13 court" and various synonyms as a kind of 14 "invective to disparage the fairness of" proceedings and critique 15 malfunctioning adjudication."

16 ¶113. Fact-12. Like Merriam-Webster, Collins also has an entry that describes a kangaroo 17 court as

18 "an unauthorized, irregular court, usually disregarding normal legal procedure, 19 as one in a frontier region."

20 ¶114. Fact-13. This definition connotes informality and inferiority as well as including the 21 geographical references made in legal dictionaries. The primary examples of kangaroo court
22 and agency tribunals include claims of bias during the proceedings, unfair evidentiary
23 considerations, denial of counsel, licensed or unlicensed, fettered or unfettered, denial
24 of the right to be heard, conflicts of interest, and legal decisions animated by improper 25 motivations. The bottom line, these interpretations state that kangaroo courts lack the 26 formality found in traditional courts and have fewer procedural protections, which 27 make them inferior tribunals, which lead to inequitable legal outcomes. These tribunals 28 are "the lowly courts", which are on the bottom of the "Penal Pyramid", operating under "Public Policy" in which "limited principles of legality get lost in the shuffle of"

¶118. Fact-17. Kangaroo Courts and Agency Tribunals are run by interested foreign parties whose salary and occupational existence are inextricably tied to the kangaroo's economic health.<sup>64</sup> When considered alongside the demonstrable reality that kangaroo courts and agency tribunals are <sup>31</sup> cash cows for their foreign principals "The Bank" and "The Fund", it is hard to envision conflict-free adjudication emanating from kangaroo courts and agencies inequality-producing nature being focused on revenue generation. Being a "Neutral Arbiter of the Law", under "Public Law" is NOT the focus. Instead, these kangaroo courts and agency tribunals "use its supposed judicial authority as the means to compel the payment of fines and fees, through force and violence, through threat, duress and coercion, that advance their foreign principals "The Bank" and "The Fund" special interests welfare under "Public Policy". The kangaroo Amateur Hour Proceedings typically violate due process and equal protection, under "Public Law"!!!

Arizona's Courts And Society.

¶119. Fact-18. Census revenue data offers at best an indirect, partial picture of collections from municipal courts, there is direct data on actual collections for ten states, which together collected a total of nearly $2 billion.<sup>92</sup> Sometimes that information was consistent with census data. According to the Goldwater Institute, Arizona municipal courts collect $167 million in fines and fees of which cities keep about half.<sup>93</sup> The census similarly reports that Arizona cities receive approximately $80 million in fines and fees. As a result, Arizona, cities get to keep about half of their municipal court collections and the rest goes to the state and other

<sup>31</sup> What makes a cash cow? A cash cow is a profitable product or business that brings in a steady flow of income. It may also refer to a business venture that generates more profit than it cost to acquire or create. The expression refers to the idea that something produces 'milk,' i.e., profit, long after we have recovered the cost of investment.

1 governments, ...Arizona, has eighty-two city courts that process about one million civil 2 and criminal cases every year, more than half of Arizona's total judicial docket.
3 Fact, Arizona make further appellate review discretionary and NOT as of right. See,
4 e.g., State versus Eby, 244 P.3d 1177, 1178-79 (Arizona Court of Appeals 2011)
5 (confirming right to appeal judgment of justice court to superior court without the 6 right to subsequent appeal to Arizona Court of Appeals, even when superior court
7 appeal is a de novo trial). Because of close relationships between judges and law 8 enforcement,

9 “many people believe somewhat cynically that it is nearly impossible to win a 10 municipal court case involving an officer's word against a private citizen's word, 11 NO matter how many other credible witnesses testify in the defendant's favor.”

12 ¶120. Fact-19. See FLATTEN, CITY COURT: MONEY, PRESSURE AND 13 POLITICS, (“City judges being co-opted by political forces is a long-simmering issue, 14 both in Arizona and nationally. Put differently, state and municipal courts will often 15 violate due process norms in similar ways, the former because they are ignoring legal 16 mandates, the latter because they have been excused from them. The two phenomena 17 are NOT normatively equivalent: legal mandates such as legality, neutrality, and 18 independence perform their own expressive, legitimating work above and beyond case 19 outcomes. They are integral to the way that we conceptualize courts and judging, and 20 they offer dignitary and democratic respect to vulnerable defendants in principle, even 21 when they are breached in practice. The fact that municipal courts have been formally 22 excused from some of them thus has independent significance.

23 ¶121. Fact-20. As Justice Scalia once wrote:

24 [Judges'] most significant roles, in our system, are to protect the individual 25 criminal defendant against the occasional excesses of that popular will, and 26 to preserve the checks and balances within our constitutional system that are 27
28

1 precisely designed to inhibit swift and complete accomplishment of that 2 popular will.

3 ¶122. Fact-21. Independence, transparency, and public reasoning are central to 4 definitions of judging. The “classical view of the judicial role,” writes Professor Judith 5 Resnik, is one in which

6
7 “judges are NOT supposed to have an involvement OR interest in the 8 controversies they adjudicate.”<sup>310</sup>

9 ¶123. Fact-22. See Judith Resnik, Managerial Judges, 96 HARV. L. REV. 374, 376 10 (1982)(contrasting the classical hands-off judicial ideal with the realities of 11 managerial judging).

12 ¶124. Fact-23. Resnik and Professor Dennis Curtis write that 13 “to judge is to ‘speak[] truth to power,’ to seek to hold and, on occasion, to 14 exercise some form of jurisdiction beyond that given by OR belonging to the 15 sovereign, so as to have a measure of critical independence from the 16 sovereign.”<sup>312</sup>

17 ¶125. Fact-24. See Dennis E. Curtis & Judith Resnik, Essay, Images of Justice, 96
18 YALE L.J. 1727, 1739 (1987) (alteration in original) (footnote omitted) (quoting Robert 19 M. Cover, The Folktales of Justice: Tales of Jurisdiction, 14 CAP. U. L. REV. 179, 20 190 (1985)) (describing Professor Robert Cover’s work on judicial independence).

21 ¶126. Fact-25. In these analyses, adjudication has public dimensions; the role of the 22 court is NOT merely one of dispute resolution, but of public law preservation. OR as 23 Professor Owen Fiss put it,

24 “[a]djudication is the social process by which judges give meaning to our public 25 values.”<sup>314</sup>

¶127. Fact-26. See Judith Resnik, Uncovering, Disclosing, and Discovering How the Public Dimensions of Court-Based Processes Are at Risk, 81 CHI.-KENT L. REV. 521, 530 (2006) (describing the public dimensions of adjudication and quoting Jeremy Bentham as saying “[p]ublicity is the very soul of justice”). See Owen M. Fiss, The Supreme Court, 1978 Term—Foreword: The Forms of Justice, 93 HARV. L. REV. 1, 2 (1979).

¶128. Fact-27. Perhaps unsurprisingly, Resnik treats Ferguson as a prime example of court failure, an object lesson regarding the need for judicial independence. Writing in 2017, she says of the Ferguson court’s crass revenue maximization:

“[W]e are being given a lesson in the value of independent judges, protected from the wrath of public and private actors and obliged to treat disputants in an equal and dignified manner.”

¶129. vFact-28. See Judith Resnik, Lawyers’ Ethics Beyond the Vanishing Trial: Unrepresented Claimants, De Facto Aggregations, Arbitration Mandates, and Privatized Processes, 85 FORDHAM L. REV. 1899, 1942 (2017); see also Judith Resnik, Diffusing Disputes: The Public in the Private of Arbitration, the Private in Courts, and the Erasure of Rights, 124 YALE L.J. 2804, 2816, 2834 (2015) (arguing the court failure in Ferguson “ma[de] vivid the disjuncture between government-empowered judges and just systems,” id. at 2816).

¶130. Fact-29. The unfairness and inequality of kangaroo courts have been critiqued in Arizona and other jurisdictions. The available information about Arizona courts prove that they are kangaroo courts that fuel mass incarceration for profit and gain of private interests. What MUST be done in this Declarant’s point of view??? First, scholars MUST pay attention to the DETAILS, by <sup>32</sup> scrutinizing the bottom of the

2 courts and agency tribunals in Arizona for mass incarcerations, court costs, fines,

4 constitutional violations occurring typically in Arizona’s Kangaroo Courts where 5 flagrant informality is tolerated by courts and legislatures. It is up to scholars — at

8 The strict scrutiny standard of judicial review is based on the equal protection clause of the 9 Fourteenth Amendment. Federal courts use strict scrutiny to determine whether certain types of 10 government POLICIES are constitutional. The U.S. Supreme Court has applied this standard to 11 laws or policies that impinge on a right explicitly protected by the U.S. Constitution, such as the 12 right to vote. The Court has also identified certain rights that it deems to be fundamental rights, 13 even though they are NOT enumerated in the Constitution.

14 The strict scrutiny standard is one of three employed by the courts in reviewing laws and 15 government policies. The rational basis test is the lowest form of judicial scrutiny. It is used in 16 cases where a plaintiff alleges that the legislature has made an Arbitrary or irrational decision.
17 When employed, the Rational Basis Test usually results in a court upholding the constitutionality
18 of the law, because the test gives great deference to the legislative branch. The heightened scrutiny 19 test is used in cases involving matters of discrimination based on sex. As articulated in Craig versus 20 Boren, 429 U.S. 190, 97 S. Ct. 451, 50 L. Ed. 2D 39 (1976), "classifications by gender MUST serve 21 important governmental objectives and MUST be substantially related to the achievement of those 22 objectives."

23 Strict scrutiny is the most rigorous form of judicial review. The Supreme Court has identified the 24 right to vote, the right to travel, and the right to privacy as fundamental rights worthy of protection 25 by strict scrutiny. In addition, laws and POLICIES that discriminate on the basis of race are 26 categorized as suspect classifications that are presumptively impermissible and subject to strict 27 scrutiny.

28 Once a court determines that strict scrutiny MUST be applied, it is presumed that the law OR POLICY is unconstitutional. The government has the burden of proving that its challenged policy is constitutional. To withstand strict scrutiny, the government MUST show that its POLICY is necessary to achieve a compelling state interest. If this is proved, the state MUST then demonstrate that the legislation is narrowly tailored to achieve the intended result.

The case of Roe versus Wade, 410 U.S. 113, 93 S. Ct. 705, 35 L. Ed. 2D 147 (1973), which invalidated state laws that prohibited Abortion, illustrates the application of strict scrutiny. The Court held that the right to privacy is a fundamental right and that this right "is broad enough to encompass a woman's decision whether or NOT to terminate her pregnancy." Based on these grounds, the Court applied strict scrutiny. The state of Texas sought to proscribe ALL abortions and claimed a compelling State Interest in protecting unborn human life. Though the Court acknowledged that this was a legitimate interest, it held that the interest does NOT become compelling until that point in pregnancy when the fetus becomes "viable" (capable of "meaningful life outside the mother's womb"). The Court held that a state may prohibit abortion after the point of viability, EXCEPT in cases where abortion is NECESSARY to preserve the life or health of the 3 ¶131. Fact, criminal legal scholars have focused in particular on the heightened need 4 for judicial independence. Professor Rachel Barkow, for example, argues that the 5 institutional values protected by separation of powers are threatened by near 6 unilateral prosecutorial control over case outcomes in derogation of independent

7 judicial authority. See Barkow, supra note 270, at 1025, 1046–48:

9 (“The same prosecutor who investigates a case can make the final 10 determination about what plea to accept. There is therefore NO structural 11 separation of adjudicative and executive power...” Id. at 1025.). Barkow’s 12 call for a strong judiciary is primarily a response to the scope of federal 13 prosecution, but state and municipal prosecutorial powers are similarly 14 broad. See Rachel E. Barkow, Federalism and Criminal Law: What the 15 Feds Can Learn from the States, 109 MICH. L. REV. 519, 538 (2011)

23 did NOT meet its Burden of Proof and the law was held unconstitutional.

24 33 From USLegal. Egregious cases are cases involving flagrant violation of human rights. The 25 following are examples of case law on egregious cases: In an egregious case the prosecution
26 stubbornly refuses to file a motion despite overwhelming evidence that the accuser’s assistance has 27 been as substantial as to cry out for meaningful relief. Such cases should be rare because there are 28 significant institutional incentives for the prosecution to exercise sound judgment and to act in good faith. [United States versus Burkhalter, 1991 U.S. App. LEXIS 29282 (10th Cir. 1991)].

An egregious case arises when the defendant clearly has provided substantial and valuable assistance, but the Government has arbitrarily and in bad faith refused to make a motion for departure. [United States versus Martinez, 1995 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 6033 (D. Cal. 1995)].

1 (“[T]he primary factor that people consider when they are deciding 2 whether they feel a decision is legitimate and ought to be accepted is 3 whether or NOT they believe that the authorities involved made their 4 decision through a fair procedure, irrespective of whether members of the 24 ¶135. Fact-33. The bottom line, pay attention to details by getting back to being ardent 25 enforcers of constitutional criminal procedure in traditional courts in Arizona.

26 The Federal Administrative “STATES”, Spelled In ALL Caps,

27 <sup>34</sup> In the Merriam-Webster dictionary, “carceral” is defined as “of, relating to, OR suggesting a jail walls and into minoritized communities in the form of predictive policing.

Such As The "STATE OF ARIZONA" Have "Executive Branch Adjudicators" Preside Over "Hearings"!!!

¶136. Fact-34. NOT ALL adjudicators purport to be judicial.<sup>331</sup> The federal administrative state employs several thousand executive branch adjudicators who preside over hundreds of thousands of hearings every year;<sup>332</sup> state ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES employ many thousands more.<sup>333</sup>

331 Nelson, supra note 273, at 599 (arguing that NOT all adjudication qualifies as "judicial" and describing historical distinction between the adjudication of public interests and private rights and liberties, only the latter of which requires true judicial authority).

332 Kent Barnett, Against Administrative Judges, 49 U.C. DAVIS L. REV. 1643, 1652 (2016) (identifying approximately 1,500 federal administrative law judges (ALJs) and 3,000 federal administrative judges (AJs)).

¶137. Fact-35. Although municipalities are NOT ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES,<sup>334</sup> the judges in their courts bear strong family resemblances to these ADMINISTRATIVE law judges (ALJs): they too are adjudicative officials paid by, often selected by, and/OR beholden to executive OR legislative officials who rely on them to enforce local codes, in much the same way that AGENCIES maintain ALJs in order to enforce AGENCY regulations.<sup>335</sup> 334 See David J. Barron, The Promise of Cooley's City: Traces of Local Constitutionalism, 147 U. PA. L. REV. 487, 563-64 (1999) ("A local community is NOT simply a type of state administrative agency to be shaped at will to serve the need of the central state."). The Model State Administrative Procedure Act also excludes "the Judiciary" from its definition of "Agency." Revised Model State Administrative Procedure Act §102(3) (National Conference of Commissions of on Uniform State Laws. 2010).

1 335 NOT withstanding these similarities, municipal governance has 2 generally escaped the attention of administrative law scholarship. See Aaron
3 Saiger, Local Government as a Choice of Agency Form, 77 OHIO ST. L.J.
4 423, 424–25 (2016) (noting that local government scholars maintain they 5 are NOT doing administrative law). A few scholars have pushed back 6 against this disciplinary state of affairs. See, e.g., Davidson, supra note 197, 7 at 564, 572 (arguing that administrative law scholarship should turn its 8 attention to local administrative entities such as health and zoning boards); Saiger, supra, at 425 (proposing that a state’s decision to create a local government should be conceptualized as a choice of agency form).

9 ¶138. Fact-36. More specifically, the independence and neutrality challenges
10 surrounding municipal courts strongly resemble issues of INDEPENDENT agency
11 adjudication that have been thoroughly excavated in the ADMINISTRATIVE law 12 context. Indeed, a ADMINISTRATIVE law routinely relies on Ward versus Village of

23 35 From USLegal: Quasi-criminal refers to treating an act in a civil case as if it were occurring in a

The Federal “Administrative Procedure Act”
5 U.S.C. §§551, 553–559, 701–706.

¶139. Fact-37. Municipal courts could benefit from the conversation around ADMINISTRATIVE adjudication. ADMINISTRATIVE law has long grappled with the structural risks of bias and undue influence triggered by AGENCIES that select and influence their own adjudicators.<sup>338</sup> Fueled by concerns about ALJ bias and AGENCY interference with adjudication, a large body of law has arisen to emphasize the importance of adjudicator insulation against agency control.<sup>339</sup> The federal Administrative Procedure Act<sup>340</sup> (APA), for example, contains strong protections for

The Federal “Administrative Procedure Act”
5 U.S.C. §554(d)(2).

¶140. Fact-38. Those protections include limitations on AGENCY supervision and removal of ALJs, and prohibitions against ALJ communications with AGENCY investigators OR prosecutors.<sup>341</sup>

When an Administrative Agency makes rules and regulations, it is acting in a quasi-legislative capacity.

1 338 See, e.g., Barnett, supra note 332, at 1648; see also Benslimane versus 2 Gonzales, 430 F.3d 828, 829–30 (7th Cir. 2005) (surveying numerous
3 examples of immigration judge bias and concluding that “the adjudication
4 of these cases at the administrative level has fallen below the minimum 5 standards of legal justice,” id. at 830).

6 339 E.g., Christopher J. Walker & Melissa F. Wasserman, The New World
7 of Agency Adjudication, 107 CALIF. L. REV. 141, 151 (2019) (“Congress
8 has sharply limited agency control over the selection, retention, and 9 removal of ALJs, such that ALJs enjoy strong decisional independence.”).

10 340 5 U.S.C. §§551, 553–559, 701–706.

11 341 Id. §554(d)(2) (stating that ALJs may NOT “be responsible to OR 12 subject to the supervision OR direction of an employee OR agent engaged 13 in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions for an 14 agency” and that agency investigators and prosecutors may NOT 15 “participate OR advise in the decision, recommended decision, OR agency 16 review... except as witness OR counsel in public proceedings”); see also 17 Lucia versus SEC, 138 S. Ct. 2044, 2060 (2018) (Breyer, J., concurring in 18 the judgment in part and dissenting in part) (“The substantial independence 19 that the [APA’s] removal protections provide to administrative law judges 20 is a central part of the Act’s overall scheme.”).

21 ¶141. Fact-39. In practice, municipal judge arrangements often violate these sorts of 22 anti-bias and anti-influence protections. For example, judges appointed by city councils 23 often do NOT enjoy meaningful tenure OR salary security. Many such judges perceive 24 their salaries and reappointment prospects to be contingent on their performance in 25 collecting fines and fees.<sup>342</sup> Judges commonly communicate with and rely on police and 26 prosecutors: many municipal courts depend on local prosecutors for space, resources, 27 and legal advice, especially when those judges are NOT themselves attorneys.<sup>343</sup> Some 28 judges serve as prosecutors in other jurisdictions and maintain professional relationships with law enforcement.<sup>344</sup> These practices suggest that Ward and the conflict cases do NOT guarantee adjudicator independence in the robust ways that separation of powers principles require for formal adjudications in the comparable AGENCY context.<sup>345</sup>

15 345 The APA does NOT fully resolve the ALJ impartiality question either.
16 See Kent Barnett, Resolving the ALJ Quandary, 66 VAND. L. REV. 797, 17 816–20 (2013) (summarizing debate over ALJs and how “their limited 21 and biases).

22 Agency Adjudication – Administrative Law Adjudicators
23 CANNOT Adjudicate Criminal Cases!!!

24 ¶142. Fact-40. The AGENCY adjudication comparison is potentially useful in 25 another way: it highlights the special tensions that arise when municipal courts resemble 26 a ADMINISTRATIVE adjudicators while operating in their criminal capacity.
27 ADMINISTRATIVE law adjudicators DO NOT exercise criminal authority. Even when 28 parent AGENCIES have the authority to define “ADMINISTRATIVE CRIMES,” violations are adjudicated by courts, NOT by ALJs.<sup>346</sup> Indeed, most ALJs lack the authority to detain, let alone punish.<sup>347</sup> This is because criminal law and its liberty deprivations trigger unique concerns: the executive power to punish is specially constrained by judicial checks and balances, and criminal defendants are accorded unique constitutional protection against the political branches.<sup>348</sup>

1 346 1 WAYNE R. LAFAVE, SUBSTANTIVE CRIMINAL LAW §2.6(c)
2 (3d ed. 2017) (concluding that legislatures “clearly” CANNOT delegate to 3 an administrative agency the power of adjudication OR the authority to 4 determine guilt or innocence in individual cases).

5 347 Immigration judges have the power to detain, 8 U.S.C. §1226, and Tax 6 Court judges can punish contempt with incarceration, Lucia versus SEC, 7 138 S. Ct. 2044, 2054 (2018).

8 348 United States versus Ward, 448 U.S. 242, 248 (1980) (“The distinction
9 between a civil penalty and a criminal penalty is of some constitutional 10 import.”).

11 ¶41. Fact-41. As Nelson notes,

12 “the authoritative adjudication of an individual’s core private rights to life 13 OR liberty plainly DOES require ‘judicial’ power.”<sup>349</sup>

14 349 Nelson, supra note 273, at 626; see also id. (“[The] authoritative
15 deprivation of an individual’s natural rights to life or physical liberty
16 requires fully ‘judicial’ determination of the individualized adjudicative
17 facts.”); Hamdi versus Rumsfeld, 542 U.S. 507, 536 (2004) (plurality 18 opinion) (finding that separation of powers “most assuredly envisions a 19 role for all three branches when individual liberties are at stake”).

20 ¶143. Fact-42. Put differently, as long as municipal courts exercise that special criminal 21 authority, they MUST be sufficiently judicial to do so. The comparison between 22 municipal courts and ALJs is admittedly limited. Municipal governments are NOT 23 ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES.<sup>350</sup> Federal agencies are constrained by separation of 24 powers in ways that DO NOT apply at the local level.<sup>351</sup> Federal ALJ decisions are NOT 25 final.<sup>352</sup>

27 351 See supra pages 1007–10 (discussing inapplicability of separation of 28 powers to local governments).

352 Lucia, 138 S. Ct. at 2054 (describing agency review of ALJ decisions).
While municipal judge decisions are final, de novo review and a new trial are typically available to any defendant wishing to challenge their

1 conviction. See supra section I.B.4, pages 1003–05 (discussing appellate 2 processes). But see Jim Rossi, Final, but Often Fallible: Recognizing
3 Problems with ALJ Finality, 56 ADMIN. L. REV. 53, 54 (2004)

4 ¶144. Fact-43. Nevertheless, municipal courts and ALJs BOTH confront the obvious
5 appearance of conflict and bias that arises when an adjudicator has deep institutional 6 connections to a nonjudicial institution seeking enforcement of its own rules. In the 7 administrative law context, ALJ independence is a touchstone, a central reference
8 point relied on by courts and scholars alike that supports the notion that executive 9 branch adjudication can meet basic due process and legitimacy standards. Ward
10 and the municipal court conflict cases have come to play an important role in fleshing 11 out that administrative commitment to adjudicator neutrality. Ironically, many actual 12 municipal court practices remain in deep tension with that commitment.

14 Arizona 2017 Report.
15 “Good-Old-Boys” Local Elected Municipal Court Judges
16 Give “Special Treatment” To Influential City Insiders.

17 ¶145. Fact-44. Several states have concluded that local appointments processes are 18 particularly risky. A 2017 Arizona report found that local elections better insulate 19 municipal court judges from “good-old-boy” pressures emanating from 20 appointment commissions, which exert pressures

21 “to raise revenue through fines, [to] allow questionable practices that are 22 priorities of the [city] council, OR to give special treatment to influential 23 city insiders.”<sup>377</sup>

24 Imposition Of Fines And Fees
25 And “Debtors’ Prisons.”

¶146. Fact-45. If there is one arena in which municipal courts have gained recognition, it is in connection with their role in raising local revenue through the<sup>36</sup> IMPOSITION of fines and fees. An enormous new wave of litigation, advocacy, and scholarship — much but NOT all of it post-Ferguson — is devoted to the problem of fines and fees,<sup>37</sup> debtors' prisons, and the incentives of governments, police, and courts to use criminal law enforcement to raise money. See, e.g., Michael D. Makowsky et al., To Serve and 36 Meaning of Imposition. Excessive burden, noun. The encroachment, encumbrance, excessive demands, extraordinarily burdensome requirements, hindrances, inflictions, infringements, interferences, onus, unjust burdens and unjust requirements. Such as a tax, noun. Charges, duties, excises, levies, penalties, tariffs and tolls. Late 14th Century definition, “a tax, duty, tribute,” from Old French imposition “tax, duty; a fixing” (early 14th Century.), from Latin impositionem (nominative impositio) “a laying on,” noun of action from past participle stem of imponere “to place upon,” from assimilated form of in “into, in” (see in- (2)) + ponere “to put, place” (past participle positus; see position; this term is also a noun.). Sense of “the act of putting (something) on (something else)” is from 1590s. Meaning “an act or instance of imposing” (on someone) first recorded 1630s, a noun of action from impose, which is unrelated to the earlier word. From Dictionary of Law Terms and Legal Definitions.

Wagner, Red Ink in the Rear View Mirror: Local Fiscal Conditions and the Issuance of Traffic Tickets, 52 J.L. & ECON. 71, 72 (2009) (noting an increase in local ticket issuances following local revenue declines).

¶149. Fact-48. Courts are the quiet centerpiece of this strategy — they are the site in which revenue-generating legislation and extractive policing actually translate into collections. In this sense, the general conversation around municipal courts as local economic actors has implicitly begun. See Ordower et al., supra note 288, at 117–19; see also All Things Considered, North Carolina Law Makes It Harder for Judges to Waive Fees and Fines, NPR (Dec. 4, 2017, 4:41 PM), <https://www.npr.org/2017/12/04/568393477/north-carolina-law-makes-it-harder-for-judges-to-waive-fees-and-fines> [<https://perma.cc/D97N-V23L>] (explaining new state law restricting judges' ability to waive fines and fees).

¶150. Fact-49. This Article shows that municipal courts collect at least two billion dollars, and probably much more, in fines and fees each year.<sup>386</sup> In those thirty states that permit municipal courts, cities receive and rely on $3.1 billion in court fine-and-forfeit revenue. Although more specifics are lacking, this basic accounting reveals municipal courts to be central players in the redistribution of local wealth.

Arizona Municipal Courts Fines And Fees Were $167 Million.
Half Funded General Municipal Operations.

¶151. Fact-50. The reference to “local governments” is actually to municipal courts — the quoted paragraph in the ACLU brief is devoted to documenting municipalities’ heavy reliance on city court-generated revenue:

In 2017, New Jersey municipal courts collected more than $400 million in fines and fees, with more than half of that amount funneled to the general funds of municipalities and a significant portion directed to state and county governments. Similarly, in 2016, more than half of the $167 million raised by Arizona municipal courts in fines and fees funded general municipal operations. Among the 100 cities in the United States that generated the highest proportion of municipal revenue from fines and fees in 2012, between 7.2% and 30.4% of total municipal revenue was derived from fine and fee collection.<sup>394</sup>

Cities Are An Integral Part Of State Insolvency!!!
As “Regressive Tax Collectors” In “Judicial Disguise.” Redistributing Social Capital Away From We The People!!!
Cities “Policing Decisions Are Financial Burdens!!!

¶152. Fact-51. In these ways, municipal courts turn out to be important vehicles through which local governments respond to state fiscal crises. They can be seen as a low profile but integral part of a larger economic story about the relationship between state and local government. They are also local wealth redistributors in their own right, contributing to the often fraught relationship between local governments and their own disadvantaged residents. These courts’ redistributive role is most obvious when they collect fines and fees from low-income residents to fund the criminal system, a policy that has triggered the charge that local courts are regressive tax collectors in judicial disguise.<sup>395</sup> But courts also redistribute social capital away from defendants by translating policing decisions into financial burdens. Why???

Why "Strip We The People" Of Our "Life Resources"???
For The Benefit Of Their Private "Foreign Principals."
City Municipal Courts Are Key Players
In The Overthrow of America!!!

¶153. Fact-52. It is courts that convert arrests and prosecutions into criminal convictions, collateral consequences, unemployment, debt, and ALL the other mechanisms through which the criminal process strips people of their LIFE RESOURCES.<sup>396</sup> Because low-level law enforcement is so often racially skewed, municipal courts thus also contribute to and reinforce the racialized criminalization of poverty.<sup>397</sup> These powerful economic effects make municipal courts key players in the localism inequality drama.

395 See NATAPOFF, PUNISHMENT WITHOUT CRIME, supra note 9, at 201–10.

396 See id. at 9–10, 117, 147 (arguing that the regressive redistributive influence of the misdemeanor system renders it a powerful socioeconomic institution on par with housing, education, and other welfarist policies).

397 Criminalization, for example, can reduce mobility because criminal records and debt interfere with employment and housing in ways that prevent residents from exiting the jurisdiction. Municipal court criminalization thus might weaken some localist models of accountability based on mobility. See Michelle Wilde Anderson, Cities Inside Out: Race, Poverty, and Exclusion at the Urban Fringe, 55 UCLA L. REV. 1095, 1135 (2008) (describing how public choice theories of local government rely heavily on the exit option: "[T]he threat that people will 'vote with their feet' by moving in search of suitable locales serves as an inherent check on local government behavior"); see also Davidson, The Dilemma of Localism, supra note 362, at 981 (describing a localism "model [that] suggests that residential and other forms of mobility will serve as a sufficient check on the excesses of local government"). I'm indebted to Michelle Wilde Anderson for this insight.

Kangaroo Courts Under Martial Law
Collecting Revenue And Attorney Fees Under Statutory Law Which Are NOT Constitutional!!!

¶154. Fact-53. We now have only kangaroo courts and agencies at ALL levels. And their only interest is in collecting as much revenue and attorney fees as possible. Because the state courts are now under martial law, they will only hear cases of a statutory nature. They will NOT hear constitutional claims, because they are NOT operating under the Constitution, and a U.S. citizen [a.k.a. <sup>38</sup> citizen of the United States] has NO rights secured by "The Constitution of the United States". The cases they DO hear, that involve supposed constitutional rights, are really about the privileges and immunities granted to 14th Amendment U.S. citizens [a.k.a. citizen of the United States]. These privileges and immunities are the same as the Bill of Rights, but are really the Bill of Privileges. But rather than admit that, and cause a revolt, they just look for any technicality they can find to dismiss your case, or rule against you, without addressing the constitutional issues.

The Bill of Rights Are Really The Bill of Privileges
After Title I Starts The Statutes.

¶155. Fact-54. If we look at the statutes for the de facto "STATE OF ARIZONA" spelled in all upper case letters, we will find that the Constitution, state OR federal, and the Bill of Rights, are NOT included in the statutes. The statutes start AFTER these documents with Title I.

12 courts of the United States who took office on OR before June 6, 1932, the 13 compensation received as such shall be included in gross income".

14 Sec. 4. The United States hereby consents to the taxation compensation, 15 received after December 31, 1938, for personal service as an officer OR 16 employee of the United States, any Territory OR possession OR political 17 subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, OR an agency OR

22 TITLE II

23 Sec. 201. Any amount of income tax (including interest, additions to tax, and 24 additional amounts) for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 25 1938, to the extent attributable to compensation for personal service as an 26 officer OR employee of a State, OR any political subdivision thereof, OR 27 any agency OR instrumentality of any one OR more of the foregoing -

28 (a) shall NOT be assessed, and NO proceeding in court for the collection thereof shall be begun OR prosecuted (unless pursuant to an assessment made prior to January 1, 1939);

(b) if assessed after December 31, 1938, the assessment shall be abated, and any amount collected in pursuance of such assessment shall be credited OR refunded in the same manner as in the case of an income tax erroneously collected; and

(c) shall, if collected on OR before the date of the enactment of this Act, be credited OR refunded in the same manner as in the case of an income tax erroneously collected, in the following cases -

1 (1) Where a claim for refund of such amount was filed before January 2 19, 1939, and was NOT disallowed on OR before the date of the 3 enactment of this Act;

4 (2) Where such claim was so filed but has been disallowed and the time
5 for beginning suit with respect thereto has NOT expired on the date of 6 the enactment of this Act;

7 (3) Where a suit for the recovery of such amount is pending on the date
8 of the enactment of this Act; and

9 (4) Where a petition to the Board of Tax Appeals has been filed
10 with respect to such amount and the Board's decision has NOT 11 become final before the date of the enactment of this Act.

12 Sec. 202. In the case of any taxable year beginning after December 31, 13 1937, and before January 1, 1939, compensation for personal service as an 14 officer OR employee of a State, OR any political subdivision thereof, OR 15 any agency OR instrumentality of any one OR more of the foregoing, shall 16 NOT be included in the gross income of any individual under Title I of the 17 Revenue Act of 1938 and shall be exempt from taxation under such title, if 18 such individual either -

19 (a) did NOT include in his return for a taxable year beginning after 20 December 31, 1936, and before January 1, 1938, any amount as 21 compensation for personal service as an officer OR employee of a State, 22 OR any political subdivision thereof, OR any agency OR instrumentality 23 of any one OR more of the foregoing; OR

24 (b) did include any such amount in such return, but is entitled under 25 section 201 of this Act to have the tax attributable thereto credited OR 26 refunded.

27 Sec. 203. Any amount of income tax (including interest, additions to tax, and 28 additional amounts) collected on, before, OR after the date of the enactment of this Act for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1939, to the extent attributable to compensation for personal service as an officer OR employee of a State, OR any political subdivision thereof, OR any agency
OR instrumentality of any one OR more of the foregoing, shall be credited
OR refunded in the same manner as in the case of an income tax erroneously collected, if claim for refund with respect thereto is filed after January 18, 1939, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, finds that disallowance of such claim would result in the application of the doctrines in the cases of Helvering against Therrell (303 U.S. 218), Helvering against Gerhardt (304 U.S. 405), and Graves et. al.

1 against New York ex rel O'Keefe, decided March 27, 1939, extending the 2 classes of officers and employees subject to Federal taxation.

3 Sec. 204. Neither section 201 NOR section 203 shall apply in any case
4 where the claim for refund, OR the institution of the suit, OR the filing of the 5 petition with the Board, was, at the time filed OR begun, barred by the 6 statute of limitations properly applicable thereto.

7 Sec. 205. Compensation shall NOT be considered as compensation within 8 the meaning of sections 201, 202, and 203 to the extent that it is paid
9 directly OR indirectly by the United States OR any agency OR 10 instrumentality thereof.

11 Sec. 206. The terms used in this Act shall have the same meaning as when 12 used in Chapter I of the Internal Revenue Code.

13 Sec. 207. NO collection of any tax (including interest, additions to tax, and 14 penalties) imposed by any State, Territory, possession OR local taxing 15 authority on the compensation, received before January 1, 1939, for 16 personal service as an officer OR employee of the United States OR any 17 agency OR instrumentality thereof which is exempt from Federal income
18 taxation and, if a corporate agency OR instrumentality, is one (a) a 19 majority of the stock of which is owned by OR on behalf of the United 20 States, OR (b) the power to appoint OR select a majority of the board of 21 directors of which is exercise-able by OR on behalf of the United States, 22 shall be made after the date of the enactment of this Act.

23 Sec. 208. This title shall NOT apply with respect to any officer OR 24 employee of a State, OR any political subdivision thereof, OR any agency
25 OR instrumentality of any one OR more of the foregoing, after the 26 Secretary of the Treasury has determined and proclaimed that it is the 27 policy of such State to collect from any individual any tax, interest, 28 additions to tax, OR penalties, on account of compensation received by such individual prior to January 1, 1939, for personal service as an officer OR employee of the United States OR any agency of instrumentality thereof.
In making such determination the Secretary of the Treasury shall disregard the taxation of officers and employees of any corporate agency OR instrumentality which is NOT exempt from Federal income taxation, OR which if so exempt is one (a) a majority of the stock of which is NOT owned by OR on behalf of the United States and (b) the power to appoint OR select a majority of the board of directors of which is NOT exercise-able by OR on behalf of the United States.

Sec. 209. In the case of judges of the Supreme Court, and of the inferior courts of the United States created under article III of the Constitution,

1 who took office on OR before June 6, 1932, the compensation received as 2 such shall NOT be subject to income tax under the Revenue Act of 1938 OR 3 any prior revenue Act.

4 Sec. 210. For the purpose of this Act, the term "officer OR employee"
5 includes a member of a legislative body and a judge OR officer of a court.

6 Sec. 211. If either title of this Act, OR the application thereof to any person
7 OR circumstances, is held invalid, the other title of the Act shall NOT be 8 affected thereby.

9 Approved, April 12, 1939.

10 The "Buck Act" of 1940.
11 Wednesday, October 9, 1940.

12 See: More About This Act In Future Classes.

13 Buck Act. Oct. 9, 1940, chapter 787, 54 Stat. 1059 (see 4 U.S.C. 105-110). Senate Report No.
14 1625, 76th Congress, 3d Session, 2 (1940).

15 Congress Created Federal States In 1939
16 Over The Same Areas As The Republican States.
17 Zip Codes Are Used To Designate The Difference AZ. OR Ariz.

18 ¶158. Fact-57. So Congress then created federal states, which occupy the same area as 19 the state republics. To tell the two apart abbreviations were created to designate the 20 difference. So the republic of Arizona became the federal "STATE OF ARIZONA"
21 spelled in all upper case letters, and was abbreviated AZ, instead of Ariz. So, anytime
22 you use the two letter abbreviation AZ; you are designating a federal area and NOT a 23 sovereign state. What address do you use? Are you declaring yourself to be in a federal 24 area? If you are then you are liable for income tax. This federal area would also extend 25 to any contract you signed in which you used your social security number for 26 identification.

27 Filing Cases In A "Federal Judicial District" Instead Of 28 In A Sovereign "State".

¶159. Fact-58. The federal legal system has done the same thing. When you file a federal court case, it is NOT filed in any state, it is filed in a federal district. The heading on the court documents do NOT say IN THE STATE OF COLORADO. It says IN THE DISTRICT OF COLORADO. The states are NOT sovereign states, for court jurisdiction, they are federal districts.

District courts. Each state is comprised of one OR more federal judicial districts, and in each district there is a district court. 28 U.S.C.A. 81. The United States district courts are the trial courts with general Federal jurisdiction over cases involving federal laws of offenses and actions between citizens of different states. Each state has at least one district court, though many have several judicial districts (e.g. northern, southern, middle districts) OR divisions. There is also a United States district court in the District of Columbia.

Title 28 United States Code. Judiciary and Judicial Procedure §81 – Supreme Court.

§1251. Original jurisdiction

[§1252. Repealed. Pub. L. 100–352, § 1, June 27, 1988, 102 Stat. 662]

§1253. Direct appeals from decisions of three-judge courts

§1254. Courts of appeals; certiorari; certified questions

[§§1255, 1256. Repealed. Pub. L. 97–164, title I, § 123, Apr. 2, 1982, 96 Stat. 36]

§1258. Supreme Court of Puerto Rico; certiorari

§1259. Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces; certiorari

§1260. Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands; certiorari

The “STATE OF ARIZONA” IS NOT A Sovereign State, It’s Court Jurisdiction Is In A Federal Districts.
It Is A Military Court Under The National Emergency As Of 1933.

¶160. Fact-59. And ALL these federal court districts are ALL under the national emergency declared in 1933 and are now military courts.

Domestic & Non-Domestic Mail Jurisdictions.

¶161. Fact-60. The Post Office has also jumped on the band wagon, which is privately owned by Rockefeller. As we know, the federal government, United States, is considered a foreign country, in relation to the several states of the union. So, any mail sent within the jurisdiction of the United States proper, 10 miles square, would be domestic. Any mail sent to another jurisdiction, the 50 states or foreign countries, would be non-domestic. To show the difference, ALL domestic mail was given a zip code. There are NO zip codes for non-domestic mail. So, if you use a zip code in your address, you are identifying your location as a federal domestic area.

ALL Corporate Departments [Agencies] Are Federal Corporate Jurisdictions.
They Are ALL Domestic. They Do NOT Apply To State Republics.

¶162. Fact-61. And the IRS. The federal tax statutes only apply within federal jurisdiction. They do NOT apply within the boundaries of a state republic, as we have learned. That's why the tax department of the corporate U.S. is called the Department of Internal Revenue. It only applies within corporate U.S. jurisdiction. That jurisdiction does NOT extend to the 50 republic states, UNLESS you claim to be a U.S. citizen [a.k.a. <sup>43</sup> citizen of the United States]. Then you are subject to the jurisdiction of the corporate U.S. (14th amendment) and the taxes are for internal revenue purposes.

The American & Fringed Admiralty Flags, Which Indicate

¶163. Fact-62. There is one more proof of the martial rule in existence today. Whenever there is a military occupation, what is the first thing the occupying forces

<sup>43</sup> Title 46 – Shipping. Subtitle I-General, Chapter 1-Definition §104: Citizen of the United States. §104. Citizen of the United States.

In this title, the term "citizen of the United States", when used in reference to a natural person, means an individual who is a national of the United States as defined in section 101(a)(22) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Title 8 – Aliens and Nationality. U.S.C. 1101(a)(22)). (Pub. L. 109–304, §4, Oct. 6, 2006, 120 Stat. 1486.)

1 do? They put up their flag to show everyone who is in command of that territory! Who
2 controls ALL the commercial disputes today? If you have a legal conflict with someone
3 over some property, where do you go? To the courts! So if you want to know the real 4 status of our political situation ALL you have to do is go into the nearest courtroom and 5 *look at the flag. But for that to mean anything to you, you MUST know a little about 6 flags.

7 ¶164. Fact-63. The true American flag is red white and blue. There is NO gold fringe 8 around the edge.

9
10 What Does This Gold Fringe Indicate?

11 ¶165. Fact-64. The opinion of U.S. Attorney General John G. Sargent:

12 34 Opinion Attorney General 483, 484, 485, 486 (1925).

13 From the correspondence attached to the letter of President Harding, above
14 mentioned, it would seem that doubts have been expressed in some quarters 15 as to the propriety of attaching a fringe of yellow silk to the colors and 16 standards used by troops in the field. The use of such a fringe is prescribed 17 in Army Regulations No. 260-10. In a circular dated March 28, 1924, The 18 Adjutant General of the Army thus refers to the matter of the fringe:

19 "For a number of years there has been prescribed in Army Regulations a 20 knotted fringe of yellow silk on the national standards of mounted regiments 21 and on the national colors of unmounted regiments. The War Department, 22 however, knows of NO law which either requires or prohibits the placing of 23 fringe on the flag of the United States. NO Act of Congress OR Executive 24 order has been found bearing on the question. In flag manufacturing a 25 fringe is NOT considered to be a part of the flag, and it is without heraldic 26 significance. In common use of the word it is a fringe and NOT a border.
27 Ancient custom sanctions the use of fringe on the regimental colors and 28 standards, but here seems to be NO good reason or precedent for its use on other flags."

¶166. Fact-65. The presence, therefore, of a fringe on military colors and standards does NOT violate any existing Act of Congress. It's use or disuse is a matter of 1 practical policy, to be determined, in the absence of statute, by the Commander in 2 Chief. If the fringe is used, its color and size are matters of detail which may be 3 determined by the same authority.

4 ¶167. Fact-66. Well let's look at the regulations for flags that HAVE been issued. The 5 only direct authority for the use of fringe on the American flag is in the Army
6 regulations.

8 Army Regulation 840-10, 2.3(b) (1979) states:

9 b. National flags listed below are for indoor displays and for use in 10 ceremonies and parades. For these purposes the United States flag will be 11 rayon banner cloth, trimmed on three sides with golden yellow fringe, 2 1/2 12 inches wide.

13 Army Regulation 840-10, 2.3(c) states:

14 c. Authorization for indoor display. The flag of the United States is 15 authorized for indoor display for:

- 16 (1) each office, headquarters, and organization authorized a positional color, 17 distinguishing flag, or organizational color;
18 (2) each organization of battalion size or larger, temporary or permanent,
19 NOT otherwise authorized a flag of the United States;
20 (3) each military installation NOT otherwise authorized an indoor flag of 21 the United States, for the purpose of administering oaths of office;
22 (4) each military courtroom;
23 (5) each US Army element of joint commands, military groups, and 24 missions. One flag is authorized for any one headquarters operating in a 25 dual capacity;
26 (6) each subordinate element of the US Army Recruiting Command;
27 (7) each ROTC unit, including those at satellited schools;
28 (8) each reception station.

23 ¶168. Fact-67. Did you see anything there about use in a NON-MILITARY court of 24 law? So if there is a gold fringe around the flag in your courtroom, you are in a military 25 courtroom! We are under martial law!

¶169. Fact-68. This is confirmed by 4 U.S.C. (United States Code) Chapter 1, Sections 1, 2 & 3.

"... a military flag is a flag that resembles the regular flag of the United States, except that it has a yellow fringe border on 3 sides."

The Bottom Line!!!

¶171. Fact-70. We are operating under Public Policy, NOT Public Law. There are NO laws to uphold! And NO Constitutional courts or agencies to hear them in!

¶172. Fact-71. We are operating under stare decisis. The latest court case is the new law, if they want to use it to their advantage. They will ignore it, if it is to our advantage!

¶173. Fact-72. We are operating under necessity. The needs of the de facto government and public opinion take priority over our inalienable rights.

¶174. Fact-73. Any argument we present in court, that would expose the truth about the de facto government, OR prove their FRAUD, will be dismissed as frivolous and without merit. Supposedly we have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Which means they will refuse to give us relief, even if we are right! So, we lose, because relief will NOT be granted! An Attorney General once said to me quote, "Mushroom DO NOT do well in the light" unquote.

¶175 Fact-74. Federal areas were created to cover the same areas that the republican states occupy. Claiming to be in one of these federal areas, supposedly, brings us under the jurisdiction of the federal government as U.S. citizens [a.k.a. citizens of the United States].

Fact, ALL courts and agencies today are military courts and agencies set up under martial law, under national emergency. Just look at the flag of the occupying force. "We the Sheep" are like the sovereign American Indians on the reservation, claiming that our treaties are NOT being honored. And again, we are being told, SHUT UP!

1 Fact, When it gets right down to the bottom line, the law of the old west still prevails.
2 The ones with the biggest and fastest guns wins! Period.

5 Submissively Will Say There Is NO Cause For Alarm."...

6 Quote By William O. Douglas,

8 From His Book "Points of Rebellion"
9 See: Laird Versus Tat.

10 "But submissiveness is NOT our heritage. The First Amendment was 11 designed to ALLOW REBELLION to remain as our heritage. The 12 Constitution was designed to keep government off the backs of the 13 people. The Bill of Rights was added to keep the precincts of belief and 14 expression, of the press, of political and social activities FREE from 15 surveillance. The Bill of Rights was designed to keep AGENTS OF 16 GOVERNMENT AND OFFICIAL EAVESDROPPERS away from 17 assemblies of people. The aim was to allow men to be FREE and 18 INDEPENDENT and to ASSERT their rights against government."
